Report of the trustees for the year ended 31 March 2016

The trustees present their annual report and the financial statements for the CIO for the year ended 31 March 2016.

Structure, governance and management

Structure

The Community of Tigrayan in the United Kingdom (CTG-UK) is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) registration number 1158762 and was set up on 3rd October 2014.

Recruitment and Appointment of the Management Committee

The trustees, all CTG-UK members, are known as members of the Management Committee and are appointed in accordance with the constitution of the charity, being elected at the Annual General Meeting. Because the charity focuses its work on the most disadvantaged and marginalised community, the Management Committee seeks to ensure that it reflects the specific needs of these groups through the diversity of the knowledge and skills brought in by the trustee body, such as management skills and finance expertise.

Organisational Structure

The charity has a trustees of up to 4 members who meet monthly and are responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the charity. The trustees has the power to co-opt up to 3 further members.

There are no staff other than volunteers and the trustees who have therefore carried out all the operations of the charity during the year.

Risk Management

The trustees continues to consider potential organisational, operational, financial and administrative/systems risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure that systems and strategies are in place to minimise those risks.

Child Protect Policy

CTG-UK has a Child Protection Policy in place. Criminal Records' Bureau checks are carried out on volunteers and trustees. These checks are repeated every 3 years in accordance with statutory requirements.

Objectives and activities

The Charity's objects ('Objects') are:

(3) To promote social inclusion of persons of the community of Tigrayan now living in the UK by preventing them from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate in society.

(4) To act as a resource for young people, particular from the community of Tigrayan, by providing advice, assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of advancing in life and helping such young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to fully participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals.

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

The CTG-UK trustees continually review the work of the charity to determine whether it continues to meet its aims, objectives and activities and provides good quality services for the benefit of the public. The trustees monitor, and respond to, the views and opinions of its service users, and other interested parties, to ensure that the services the charity delivers meet their needs.

Trustees' responsibilities

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions, to disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the charity at that time and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The above report, which has been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015), and the requirements of accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015), (SORP 2015), was approved by the Trustees on 26th January 2017.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Community of Tigrayan in the United Kingdom

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2016 which are set out on pages 8 to 13.

Respective Responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of an independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
