Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the benefit of the public to relieve the suffering of wild animals in need of care and attention and, in particular, to provide and maintain facilities for the rescue, reception, care and treatment of such animals; To promote humane behaviour towards animals by providing appropriate care, protection, treatment and security for animals which are in need of care and attention by reason of sickness, maltreatment, poor circumstances or ill usage; To educate the public in matters pertaining to animal welfare in general and the prevention of cruelty and suffering among animals

Having had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit, the trustees are pleased to report that the charity has successfully run a rescue facility and attended call outs from the public to provide appropriate advice, rescue, care, protection and treatment services

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Attended over 800 calls for assistance, admitting wild birds and animals for treatment and rehabilitation with a majority released back in to the wild. Further developed relationships with other local charities and formalised agreements with specialist veterinary surgeons. We took on board our first volunteer animal care supervisor and developed plans and procedures to utilise technology in our work, bringing innovative care to our patients.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity does not currently have a policy on reserves

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our funds have in the majority come from regular supporters through monthly donations, however we have carried out a few fundraising events which did see some success. We also a pleased to announce our first donation from sponsorship of a marathon runner.
