STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The organisation is a charitable company, incorporated on 6 November 1968 and registered as a charity on 27 June 1969. The company was established under a Memorandum of Association which established the objects and the powers of the charitable company and is governed under its Articles of Association.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The directors of the company are also trustees for the purposes of charity law. The directors have the power to appoint any other person as a director subject to a maximum of ten directors.

Induction and training of new trustees

New trustees will be invited and encouraged to attend a training session at the charity's registered office to familiarise themselves with the charity and the context in which it operates. They will be provided with a copy of the Memorandum and Articles, the latest financial statements and the current financial and sales positions. Prospective trustees will be invited to sit in on the work and meetings of the existing trustees for an agreed period prior to appointment by mutual agreement.

Related parties

Evangelical Press Missionary Trust is a related party.

Risk management

The trustees have identified the major risks to which the charity is exposed. These have been reviewed and the trustees are satisfied that adequate systems of control have been established to mitigate these risks. As part of the controls of the charity, regular financial reports are considered by the trustees and frequent discussions between trustees and those involved in the senior management of the operation are undertaken.

The Evangelical Times Limited

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The principal objective of the charity is the advancement of the Evangelical Christian Faith.

The principal activity of the company is the production and publication of "The Evangelical Times".

Public Benefit

The charity's aims and achievements are set out within this report. The activities set out in this report have been undertaken to further the charitable company's charitable purposes for the public benefit. The trustees have complied with the duty under Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charities Commission and the trustees have paid due regard to this guidance in deciding what activities the charitable company should undertake.

The charity's activities in providing the publication of "The Evangelical Times" benefit the Christian community and the advancement of the Evangelical Christian Faith to the public.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

The net incoming resources for the year were £9,905 (2018: £24,391) as set out in the Statement of Financial Activities on page 5.

The circulation of the newspaper has seen a small decline over the past twelve months, although sales of advertising space continues well. Interest in the special December issue continues to be good. The development of the online edition of the newspaper continued throughout the year.

Response to ETI, the international edition of the newspaper, has been steady despite activities to increase the circulation.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

After considering budgets, cash flows and other financial information the trustees and directors believe that the charitable company will maintain its trading position over the next twelve months. The current level of free reserves is £89,713 (2018: £79,568).

The international edition of 'The Evangelical Times' attracts good donor support but will continue to require financial support for the foreseeable future. The current level of reserves is therefore considered to be appropriate.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 11 February 2020 and signed on its behalf by:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Evangelical Times Limited

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 July 2019 set out on pages 4 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Evangelical Times Limited

Notes to the Accounts for the Year ended 31 July 2019

1. Accounting Policies

The following accounting policies have been used consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the Company's Financial Statements.

(a) Accounting Convention.

The accounts (financial statements) have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) issued on 16 July 2014 and the Charities Act 2011. The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

(b) Income.

Voluntary income represents cash received during the year, including tax repayments receivable. Income from charitable activities represents amounts invoiced by the company in respect of goods and services rendered during the year, excluding VAT. Income in relation to subscriptions and advertising is included in the accounts in the period to which it relates. Deferred income therefore represents amounts received in advance for future periods.

(c) Depreciation.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Evangelical Times Limited

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 July 2019 set out on pages 4 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
