The accounts are prepared by Monsignor Nicholas Rotherham who serves as Secretary to the Trust.

The Trust was constituted by a Deed dated 15th December 1953. The power of appointing Trustees rests with the Apostolic Nuncio for the time being. The main purposes of the Charity is to hold property and to receive donations, in accordance with English Civil Law and on behalf of the Holy See for the purposes of the Apostolic Nunciature (Holy See: Vatican Embassy). At present the Trust holds the property at 54, Parkside, Wimbledon. The advancement of the Roman Catholic religion in England requires the appointment of a Nuncio as the official diplomatic representative of the Holy Father and the Trust holds the property for this purpose.

The property at 54, Parkside has not been valued for the purpose of these accounts. The property remains in functional use for the purposes of the Trust and the Trustees do not consider that cost of a formal valuation would be justified.

The property is fully maintained and renovation works are undertaken regularly. Full Insurance cover is provided. The Trustees consider that no further Risk Assessment works are required.
