

Hempton Common Lands Charity

Annual Report and Accounts for 31 Mar 2019

OBJECTIVES AND AIMS

To relieve either generally or individually persons resident in the village of Hempton, in the county of Oxfordshire, who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress. This may include the provision of items such as furniture, bedding, clothing, food, fuel, or heating appliances. It may also provide facilities such as a supply of tools, books or payment of fees for instruction or examination or travelling expenses so as to help them to earn their living.

GRANT GIVING POLICY

Benefiting persons resident in the village of Hempton, in the county of Oxfordshire.

Our purpose

To relieve either generally or individually persons resident in the village of Hempton, in the county of Oxfordshire, who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress in particular by the provision of furniture, bedding, clothing, food, fuel, heating appliances, tools, books, payment of fees for instruction or examination or travelling expenses as the trustees shall think fit.

What we support

Applications for furniture, bedding, clothing, food, fuel, heating appliances, tools, books, payment of fees for instruction or examination or travelling expenses.

This list is indicative rather than exclusive.

What we do not support

The following will only be supported in exceptional circumstances:

- other charities
- appeals for salaries
- work that is primarily the responsibility of statutory authorities including residential, respite, day care and housing provision
- animal welfare, zoos, captive breeding or animal rescue centres
- retrospective grants although we may be prepared to consider applications for work already done which was urgent (such as essential emergency repairs)
- more than one appeal from the same applicant within a 24-month period.

Size of grants

Most of our grants are up to £100 but we might consider making a larger grant if there were funds available.

We take into account the amount raised towards a project as well as the project's objectives and the extent of deprivation in the community concerned.

Process

Applications must be made in writing to the Vicar of Deddington.

Applications will be considered at the next trustee meeting.

The trustee's decision is final and no further correspondence on an application will be considered once a decision has been given.

The trustees may require evidence that the grant given has been spent in accordance with the purpose in the grant request.

Contribution by volunteers

Other than the trustees – none.

Achievements and Performance

In this period the charity has been quiet and has received no requests for support.
No additional fundraising has been done.

Financial Review.

The field tenancy agreement lasts until September 2021 and we have until September 2020 to decide if we wish the change tenant.
A land agent will be consulted to assist with the rent and contract review.
