Trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the law.

The Charity's structure and details of how it is managed

The Learning Station Project offers English classes to refugees, asylum seekers and migrants in London. It also organises cultural and sportive outings, as well as social events.

It relies strictly on volunteers. There are no employees and trustees are not remunerated.

Emmanuelle Yagour and Lola Siran, two out of the four trustees, are the cofounders of The Learning Station Project. They have volunteered with The Learning Station Project as English teachers themselves for more than a year.

Laure Panerai regularly attended the classes and ensured a smooth functioning. She has also been in touch with donors.

Alice Munnelly is a trusted and neutral person, who ensured efficiency.

A pair of experienced volunteers also ensure the well functioning of each class and help out in managing the charity.

Principal activities and objectives

The charity's principal objective was providing education and support and helping towards the integration of refugees and asylum seekers in London, in particular but not exclusively by:

- . (i) Providing free English classes
- . (ii) Offering financial help for the travel costs
- . (iii) Organising cultural and sportive outings, as well as social events

Achievements and performance

In the financial year cited above, The Learning Station Project has offered English classes every week on Mondays and Wednesdays.

It has organised cultural and sportive outings, such as visits in museums and football tournaments.

It has also collaborated with various organisations, such as TimePeace London and RefuAid.

It has supported and welcomed more than 145 students in total, coming from various countries, such as Sudan, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Syria, Iraq, Iran, and Afghanistan.

It has relied on the volunteering of 20 volunteers.

Financial review
