Para 1.20	With support from our developmental workers users are able to become more independent by improving their skills in areas such as travel, money management, staying safe in the community, shopping, cooking We have in house volunteering programmes to help people to become job ready, these include our monthly More Tea Darling Event where people gain hospitality skills, Events Management where people gain skills in planning, organising and event management in the community, making and marketing food products: Chocolicious Artisan Chocolate, Positive Paws dog biscuits, Hanwell Preserve home-made jams and chutneys, Messy Cooking making cakes and scones for our tea events and our coffee van. We have taken the coffee van to many events as the community like our model of free coffee and cake for an optional voluntary contribution for sustainability. We are the only organisation who provide work experience and volunteering opportunities for vulnerable young people in such a way. We support our group members in fulfilling their aspirations by assisting them in a fortnightly drop-in to find work experience placements, this could be via the internet or approaching employers direct, once in place developmental workers/volunteers support them and the work placement staff in their role.

		We warmly welcome vulnerable young people and young adults with mental health issues, we are able to provide a nurturing child centred approach. Young people and young adult are known to seek self-resilience for mental health rather than seeking specialist support. Our offer supports users in feeling more emotionally connected in expressing their emotions in a trusted relationship. Our model provides peer led support where the staff member is nearer the users age to create an informal relationship that has professional boundaries. We offer opportunity for the young women to discuss common barriers and strategies to challenge and respond in a way that they are more likely to be heard. We provide opportunities for the young women to gain life skills in an environment outside of home in an informal setting. Our traveller young women are learning new skills within in a practical way rather than formal way via our social enterprise programme Chocolicious opening endless possibilities of improving their economic well-being. Through positive community engagement the young women are being exposed to a wider diverse group of people, enabling them to explore their own pre-conceived ideas and perceptions. We have two social groups for our users to access: a friendship group that meet on different Saturdays in a month to encourage social interactions with peers, activities often include bowling, cinema, sports in the park, swimming. All decisions where they go are peer led. Gossip girls are aimed at young women over 21, the group is made up of friends from school/college/community groups they know, tracking them down is part of the process.
