Objectives and aims

The objects of the charity are:-

- the advancement of the Orthodox Jewish Religion;
- the relief of poverty and
- other purposes recognised as charitable by English Law.

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. The trustees confirm that they have given due regard the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and carry out the objects by making grants to both institutions and individuals.

Grantmaking

The trustees are also approached by institutions and charities both in England and abroad. In making grants the trustees use their personal knowledge of the institution and its reputation. Applications by individuals must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation by the applicant's minister or other known religious leader. All requests are considered and grants made based on circumstances and the level of funds available.
