Part2: Chairman's foreword

In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful. We thank Him for His everlasting mercy and we praise and glorifying for His countless favours to us irrespective of our human's shortcoming. We send blessing and salutation to upon our beloved Prophet Muhammad, his Companions and entire people of his households.

Here we go again! Very pleased indeed to present before you Annual Report along with independent Examiner report for the year ended 31st December 2019 for you to peruse. I am writing this report in the early August 2020 after completed celebration of Eid Al Adhah. May Allah (SWT) accept deeds for those who managed to perform the rites of Hajj this year and years before and forgive them for their shortcomings and give all us spiritual strengths to visit His Scare House soon in particular but not exclusive to those who have not done so. As usual, I am writing this report to reflect upon what happened during the year under review (2019).

It is great to shared good news to you that renovation works in our property has already started which merely focus on erection of wadhu khan and toilets facilities. But more fascinate is construction of main of prayer hall. The cost of wudhu khan and toilet facilities along installing of new and modern boiler is going to be around £30,000 while constructions of prayer hall is estimate to be on region of £47,000. Upon completion the undergo construction work our property will be in licit position as Islamic Centre where all daily five prayer and other Islamic activities can be conducted freely and unconditional.

Cov19 pandemic has changed the way we work and the way we live for the unforeseeable future. We, as community we are not immune in this deadly virus. Coronavirus related restrictions hit us severely both spiritual and financial. It restricts us using our youngsters on good course. Before outbreak of this deadly virus our youngsters use to take the lead to administering and managing Quran Classes. They were frontline during Ramadhan from organising, delivery Iftra meals, and piloting Taraweh and Tahajudi prayers. Unfortunately, we're all in isolation now. We ask Allah (SWT) to protect these crops of youngsters and community at large from monster virus.

Bereavement scheme starts to scramble during this year under review, not sure if it is consequences of feeling the heat of Cov19 pandemic. Whatever the reason it is, the scheme is underperform. Despite of all setbacks, we're working to see how we could accommodate new member into the scheme without putting too much stress to the fund. And how could we investing the fund wisely.

Like I said last year and years before, it is a pleasure and privilege to serve as Amir of this institution. We could not have achieved this milestone without a great deal of hard work by everyone within Comswa's circle. And this is what Community (Mujitamaa) is all about. May Allah (S.W.T) grant all of us goodness in this world and hereafter- Amin.

The charity's main source of income is voluntary donations; proceeds from generated funds and free interest loan. Of this source of income, were restricted funds to be applied for in specific areas of the charity's work. Management decide to use the fund raised for restricted to purpose to complete the purchases of property for religious and Community purpose. Further details of the restricted funds can be found in note to the financial statements.

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of COVENTARY MUSLIM SWAHILI ASSOCIATION (UK)

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2019 which are set out on pages 12 to 20.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

I have not identified matters of concern.

In connection with my examination, apart from the matter referred above indicating that the accounts are not fully compliant with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act 2011; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
- 2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
