2 Structure, Governance and Management

CUCT was registered as a company limited by guarantee, number 07333172, on 2 August 2010 and with the Charities Commission for England and Wales as a charity, number 1137317, on 6 August 2010. CUCT is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association which were adopted on 2 August 2010. New Trustees are appointed by existing Trustees.

The Trustees have given consideration to the risks to which CUCT is exposed and satisfied themselves that systems or procedures are in place to manage those risks. Within that review, the Trustees reviewed the adequacy of CUCT's internal controls.

3 Objects and Activities

CUCT's objects are the advancement of the Catholic religion for the public benefit by advancing Catholic moral and spiritual principles by holding educational seminars and conferences and other appropriate means. The Trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to public benefit guidance produced by the Charity Commission.

Funds are raised by appeals to individuals and charities.

4 Achievements and Performance

Standing order donations were £25,600, a little lower than those of the previous year (£27,100). One-off donations were also a little lower at £9,050 (2018: £9,500). Most donations except those from charities are eligible for gift aid and £6,700 was received (2018: £7,600).

During the year, £1,500 (2018: £3,000) was spent on lectures, £100 (2018: £100) on the Lord's Prayer Project, £300 (2018: £100) on the Catholic Young Writers Award and £1,300 (2018: £nil) on an Awareness Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Farm Street, London.

The impact and benefit of the charitable activities which CUCT funds are tangible for those we reach. The Lord's Prayer project provided teachers and pupils, in a wide range of Primary Schools, with creative means through which to learn, understand and appreciate the beautiful 'Our Father' prayer.

Likewise, the CUCT Catholic Young Writers Award has given students in Catholic Secondary Schools a distinct opportunity to consider more deeply particular aspects of their Catholic faith, whilst at the same time developing their creative writing skills.

The lectures hosted this year by CUCT have been able to provide a distinctly Catholic input into the wider national debates concerning decisions about medical ethics and the place of faith in the public square.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF CATHOLIC UNION CHARITABLE TRUST

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 December 2019, which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the financial statements of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's financial statements as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's report

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe: (1) accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or (2) the financial statements do not accord with those accounting records; or (3) the financial statements do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the financial statements give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or (4) the financial statements have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.

The Directors, who are also the Trustees, are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and Financial Statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the balance sheet date and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, for that year.

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are required to

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 2011, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association.
