I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2018.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The object of the charity is the advancement of religion by promoting religious and other charitable work in the German speaking protestant community in Greater London in accordance with the traditions of St Paul's German Evangelical Reformed Church.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity continues to support the work of the German churches in London, particularly, but not exclusively, through provision of grants to finance the cost of Pastoral Assistants in the parochial districts of London – East and London – West. It also provides grants to the German Choir in London, which performs sacred music in London's German churches and other concert venues. Grants are also made to charities supporting the homeless and adults with learning difficulties. At the trustees' meetings held on 31st January 2019 and 11th July 2019, the ongoing grants as described above were discussed and agreed, details are shown below.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees have considered the Public Benefit requirement and believe that the charity's current activities are in line with Charity Commission guidelines.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity continues to support the work of the German churches in the London, particularly, but not exclusively, through the provision of grants to finance the cost of Pastoral Assistants in the parochial districts of London – East and London- West. It also provides grants to the German Choir in London, which performs sacred music in London's German churches and other concert venues. Grants are also made to charities supporting the homeless and adults with learning difficulties. Ongoing projects: A grant of £10,000 to Glass Door, a homeless charity sponsored by and supported by local churches. A grant of £7,000 to the parochial district of London East A grant of £14,000 to the parochial district of

		London West covering a two year period. A grant of £2,500 to the German Choir London A grant of £10,000 to Borderline, a charity supporting homeless with a Scottish Origin. A grant of £8,832 to support two volunteers at Q.V.S.R, a retirement home for international seafarers in East London. A grant of £10,000 to P.I.P, a charity supporting adults with learning difficulties to expand their premises. In total the grants made were £62,332. The trust will continue to make grants along similar lines in the future and is considering how it might broaden the scope of its donations. The continuing level of dividend income and the level of the charity's reserves will enable this to be achieved despite a continuing low level of interest earned on bank deposits.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity has cash reserves of £54,786 and Investment Assets of £3,945,115
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The trustees consider the investment assets to be in the nature of an endowment fund to fund the continuing activities of the charity whilst maintaining the real value of the original endowment. The cash reserves of £54,786 are considered sufficient but not excessive to meet the immediate needs of the charity. In reaching this view, the trustees are mindful of the greater calls on the trust's funds as a result of the German churches becoming dependant on their own resources and no longer subsidised from Germany.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	The charity has cash reserves of £54,786 and Investment Assets of £3,945,115
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	The charity does not hold zero reserves, see section above
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	No funds are in deficit
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	No such concerns are noted

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The investment objectives of the charity are to achieve balanced growth of capital and income. The trustees regularly review the performance of the charity's investments which remain invested in COIF Charity Funds and in Schroder Charity Multi-Asset Units. The trustees believe these funds to be appropriate for the purposes of the trust.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	The market value of the charity's investments at 31 December 2019 was £3,945,115 (31 December 2018: £3,283,312). Investment income rose slightly during the year from £35,986 in 2018 to £36,989 in 2019.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46
Other		The charity expects continuing demand on its resources from German congregations in Greater London as funding by the Protestant Church in Germany has effectively ceased. The Trustees are actively exploring other areas of support for the work of the Church in London which would accord with the

		charitable spirit and traditions of the original St Paul's German Church congregations. Of particular interest is the potential for working with churches supporting the homeless in London and suitable new projects are being sought.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document	Para 1.25	Charity Commission Scheme sealed 2 July 1998
How is the charity constituted?	Para 1.25	Charitable Trust
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	Individual trustees are invited to propose names of suitable potential trustees for approval by the trustees

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51
Other		The trustees regularly review the risks to which the charity is exposed and consider that the only major risk faced by the charity are those to which the investment portfolio is exposed, namely maintenance of capital values and income levels. In order to mitigate these risks, the charity's investment portfolio is managed by two well-known firms of investment managers specialising in investment for charities and the trustees monitor their performance regularly.
