Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document

(e.g. trust deed, constitution)

How the charity is constituted

(e.g. trust, association, company)

Trustee selection methods (e.g. appointed by, elected by) The Group's governing documents are those of the The Scout Association. They consist of a Royal Charter, which in turn gives authority to the Bye Laws of the Association and The Policy, Organisation and Rules of The Scout Association.

The Group is a trust established under its rules which are common to all Scouts.

The Trustees are appointed in accordance with the Policy, Organisation and Rules of The Scout Association.

Additional governance issues (optional information but encouraged as best practice)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:	The Group is managed by the Group Executive Committee, the members of which are the 'Charity Trustees' of the Scout Group which is an educational charity. As charity trustees they are responsible for complying with legislation applicable to charities. This includes the registration, keeping proper accounts and making returns to the Charity Commission as appropriate.
Policies and procedures adopted for: a) the induction and training of trustees; b) trustee' consideration of major risks and the systems and procedures to manage them	The Committee consists of 3 independent representatives, Chair, Treasurer and Secretary together with the Group Scout Leader, individual section leaders (if opted to take on the responsibility) and parent's representation and meets every 2 months.
	Members of the Executive Committee complete ' Essential Information for Executive Committee ' training within the first 5 months of joining the committee.
	This Group Executive Committee exists to support the Group Scout Leader in meeting the responsibilities of the appointments and is responsible for: The maintenance of Group property; The raising of funds and the administration of Group finance; The insurance of persons, property and equipment; Group public occasions; Assisting in the recruitment of leaders and other adult support; Appointing any sub committees that may be required; Appointing Group Administrators and Advisors other than those who are elected.

Risk and Internal Control         The Group Executive Committee has identified the major risks to which they believe the Group is exposed, these hat been reviewed and systems have been established to mitigate against them. The main areas of concern that hav been identified are:         Damage to the building, property and equipment. The Grou would request the use of buildings, property and equipment from neighbouring organisations such as the church, community centre and other Scout Groups. Similar reciprocal arrangements exist with these organisations. Th Group has sufficient buildings and contents insurance in place to mitigate against permanent loss.         Injury to leaders, helpers, supporters and members. The Group through the capitation fees contributes to the Scout Associations national accident insurance policy. Risk Assessments are undertaken before all activities.         Reduced income from fund raising. The Group is primarily reliant upon income from subscriptions and fundraising. Th group does hold a reserve to ensure the continuity of activities should there be a major reduction in income. The Committee could raise the value of subscriptions to increas the income to the group on an ongoing basis, either temporarily or permanently.         Reduction or loss of leaders. The group is totally reliant up volunteers to run and administer the activities of the group. there was a reduction in the number of leaders to an unacceptable level in a particular section or the group as a whole then there would have to be a contraction,

Section D	Achievements and performance
	During the year 2019 - 2020 the members of the Scout Group joined in various activities, including summer camps, and outdoor pursuits, such as hiking and cycling. At Christmas we are to be found fund raising at our local superstore. We welcome older family members at key times during the year, including at times of Remembrance when they can pass on their experiences and memories to the next generation. Unfortunately, due to the current pandemic, face to face meetings have been restricted, but the group remains positive and some activities have recommenced since September.

Section E	Financial Review

reserves	The Group's policy on reserves is to hold sufficient resources to continue the charitable activities of the group should income and fundraising activities fall short. The Group Executive Committee considers that the group should hold a sum equivalent to 12 months running costs, circa £25,000. It is also policy to hold a sum of £5,000 to cover annual lease payments so that no financial burden falls on the Scout Association should the Group close.
	The Group held reserves of approximately £41,000 against this at year end. This is above the level required for operating expenses. However the Group will be required to make back payments on the lease, currently £10,000, plus solicitors fees once the lease is completed. This will be met from the reserve fund and the general fund. The general fund has increased as only essential maintenance has been carried out pending the completion of the lease.
	Once completed improvements to the property are

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the 1st Shoreham-by-Sea (Kingston Buci) Scout Group

I report on the accounts of the Group for the year ended 31st December 2019 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and related notes set out on pages 1 to 16

This report is made solely to the trustees in accordance with Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent Examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees for my examination work.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Group's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. They consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts (under Section 145 of the Charities Act);
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under Section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Group and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *):

- 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the Charities Act ;and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
- 2. which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
- * Please delete the words in the brackets if they do not apply
