Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Foundation model constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are appointed by consensus of the existing trustees acting in the best interest of the Charity and with due consideration of any skill sets owned by potential trustees that would benefit the Charity.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Podium provides training and a health and safety policy to all interns and volunteers that assist the charity.

Podium produces podcasts that contain rights belonging to a number of different people, including younger people. To address the issues of using the voices of young people, Podium operates a consent policy to ensure that no content is placed online without the original authors consent (or that of their parent guardian if applicable) and a take down procedure to quickly remedy any potential issues with the podcasts.

If Podium creates content for third parties, it operates under contracts to ensure all obligations are clear.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people by providing support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.

Podium.me provides mentoring and training opportunities to a wide range of young people across the UK. We provide young people with a voice via a platform that allows them to share views, personal experience and expertise, and Podium provides the opportunity, training and platform for young people to contribute to media and find jobs and further their careers in the media. Podium has a no selection no rejection policy therefore providing maximum benefit to the public.

Young people who are interested in any aspect of journalism, feature production, news, drama, music, or podcast production can apply to do an unpaid internship with podium.me.

Internships are arranged with schools and universities as well as individuals.

Freelance producers where necessary are paid for project work.

An internship can be done either at the Pod, (headquarters in Devereux Road London) or remotely by communicating online.

Internships generally last from 1 week to one month, and occasionally longer if forming part of a university course requirement.

Regular workshops take place with visiting speakers to give training on production skills and drama writing skills. These take place either independently or at the invitation of Universities or school

Regular training days and workshops help to create a community eg. 'Writing for audio drama' group which draws together new writers to create monologues and audio dramas which can be produced with the support of podium.me. The stories told are often based on the personal experiences of the young people involved.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Podium is well known for its high quality training days which bring together industry professionals and young people in an atmosphere of collaboration and useful networking for all.
