Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees review the charity's reserves policy regularly in the light of Charity Commission guidance. There are three categories of reserves held.

General funds are undesignated, and the charity's policy is to endeavour to maintain these at a level of up to three months of regular church giving income.

Designated funds arise from the setting aside of some general giving against the identified needs where required. These include maintaining a three-month operational costs contingency Restricted funds arise where gifts are received for specific purposes.

Expenditure is distributed in line with these requirements.

Details of any funds materially in deficitFurther financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The principal source of funds is gifts from church members. Gifts have also been received from other churches and individuals.
