STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The Great Barr Muslim Foundation is governed by its constitution adopted 17th December 2017. The Charity is registered with the Charities Commission.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

New trustees are appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the trustees. In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of this organisation.

Organisational structure

The board of trustees oversee the running of the charity on a day-to-day basis as per its constitution document adopted 17th December 2017.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against those risks.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives of the charity as set out in its governing document are as follows:

- a) To advance the religion of Islam, by means of, but not exclusively, promoting the teachings and tenets of Islam, provision of facilities for worship and provision of facilities for Islamic Education, in accordance with the teachings of the Qur'aan and the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and the Sahabah-E-Keraam (R.A.A) according to the interpretation and accepted view of the Ahle Sunnah Wal Jamaa-Ah and as expounded by the Salafus Saaliheen (Pious Predecessors) and in accordance to the doctrine of Ash'ari-Maturidi as defined in Clause 29 - Interpretation, Including:

The declaration that; there is no deity worthy of Worship except Allah, and that Muhammad (Peace be upon Him) is the final messenger of Allah.

The acceptance of the four schools of thought being Hanafee, Shaaf'ee, Hanbalee, and Malikee.

The acceptance of the Sunnah of the four rightly guided Caliphs of Islam being Abu-Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthman and 'Ali (may Allah be please with all of them).

All worship and religious educational matters, for the masjid/madressa, must conform to the Islamic teaching and practices of the Deobandi school of thought.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

- b) The advancement of education for public benefit in the United Kingdom, by means of, but not exclusively, supplementary classes, facilities for nursery education and any such activities as the Trustees may determine from time to time.
- c) To promote racial and religious harmony for the benefit of the public by promoting knowledge and mutual understanding between different racial and faith groups in the United Kingdom, in ways that reduces conflict and creates trust, unity and peace between them.
- d) To relieve financial hardship, distress and sufferings amongst poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in need, by means decided fit by the Trustees from time to time in the United Kingdom and other deserving parts of the world.
- e) The provision or assistance in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have a need of such facilities by reason of their youth, gender, age, infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances with the object of improving their conditions of life.

The trustees have reviewed the objectives of the charity to ensure that they provide an overall benefit to the public. In conducting this review, the Trustees have considered Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Significant activities

In addition to the regular activities, the charity was affected by the Covid-19 restrictions, however, additional workshops for the community, youth clubs and

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

We are pleased to report that Alhumdolillah throughout the year the charity maintained the running of the facilities to achieve its objectives and the Trustees are satisfied with the overall performance of the charity.

The main achievements of the charity in this financial year were the transition of the supplementary school from classroom to online due to Covid-19.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

The continuation of adult classes including practical and exercise focused for ladies were further developed. These developed the self-confidence and social skills of participants and contributed towards developing the community.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

In general income exceeded the operating expenditure during the period. Most of the funds raised were through voluntary donations from within the local community.

The surplus was used to reduce the liabilities of the charity. This remains a key aim for the coming year.

The charity aims to keep reserves to cover costs of activities.

The cash reserves held at 31st August 2020 were £39,391. These were to cover ongoing costs as well as to use to pay liabilities.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The charity is newly established and shall continue to build on its current successes.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. In preparing financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st August 2020 set out on pages eight to thirteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act;
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 - which gives me reasonable causes to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accordance with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

THE GREAT BARR MUSLIM FOUNDATION

Have not been met for; or

2 – to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
