Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the education of the public in the field of arms and armour including making grants for the acquisition and study of relevant artifacts for the public benefit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Society is usually represented at three major London antique fairs. These fairs are open to members of the general public and the Society's representatives supply information, advice, and literature on request. As a result of the current pandemic these events did not take place in 2020.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Grants can be made to individuals or organisations on application to the trustees. These applications are judged by the Society's Council of Administration on their individual merit.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

One application was made for financial and other support by The Armourers and Braziers Company with a forthcoming 700th anniversary celebration. The trustees agreed to consider this application on receipt of more detailed information.

Work on the school's essay competition has continued with a possible start date of September 2021.

The Journal of The Arms and Armour Society continues to be published and is available to members and non-members on application.
