Islamic Centre of England Ltd

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2020. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The company is a registered charity with the object of advancing the religion of Islam and education, and the provision of social and religious welfare activities. In planning the charity's activities and working towards achieving the charity's objectives, the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Significant activities

The charity has two funds Restricted and Unrestricted;

The restricted fund has resulted from an insurance claim which will be used specifically towards refurbishment of the building.

The unrestricted fund is used to manage day -to-day unrestricted costs, and for the purposes of meeting the objectives of Islamic Centre of England Ltd. During the year, the fund was utilised for the following activities:

Publicising of Islam

This was the main activity of the charity and it was carried out by the publication of brochures, pamphlets and the production of films and video for free distribution to the public. The Centre also arranged weekly religious programs in English and other languages. Madrasa classes were also held to teach Quran to students.

Cultural and religious support

During the year, donations were made to various Islamic centres throughout the UK.

Social, religious and welfare activities

During the year, the charity organised various activities in celebration of Ramadan, Eid, Hajj and other Islamic festivals for members and new converts who have no affiliation with other Islamic communities. Counselling sessions were also available for those with marriage and family predicaments.

Other activities

Other activities were organised and held by the charity during the year including trips such as Chessington Theme Park and Quran reading competitions.

Future developments

The charity will continue to focus on promoting the religion of Islam and education, and the provision of social and religious facilities. The charity continues with the efforts to modernise the mosque, and to carry out repairs and maintenance to the building.

The trustees consider that the current economic outlook due to Covid-19 will not materially affect the charity.

Financial position

The Statement of Financial Activities shows how the charity's funds have been applied during the year. The gross receipts of the organisation were £625,466 (2019- £583,641) of which £31,018 (2019-£162,887) was raised internally from the sale of books and cassettes, the hire of the conference hall, fees charged in connection with the conduct of marriages, other religious activities and insurance claim. During the year the charity received Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme grant of £109,476 (2019-Nil) .

Donations directly related to the principal activities amounted to £484,965 (2019- £420,699).

On 31 December 2020, unrestricted and restricted funds were £4,300,600 and £28,683 respectively. As the charity's income is dependent upon the goodwill of fellow worshippers, the managing trustees are of the opinion that the level of direct activities should be proportionate to such income.

The trustees consider that the net income from unrestricted fund of £62,142 (2019 - net expenditure £132,103) is as expected for the year.

The fair value has not been used for freehold property as trustees consider it would be an extra expense for the charity to obtain the valuation of the freehold property. In the opinion of the trustees the fair value of freehold property is in excess of £6m but no adjustments have been made in the balance sheet.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

The charity is fully compliant with the Charity Commission Governance code. The charity has set a clear business strategy and defined clear roles and responsibilities for the trustees. The charity is very much focused to ensure compliance with the laws and regulations.

The charity is not involved in fund raising activities.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act as a trustee.

Organisational structure

The trustees of Islamic Centre of England Ltd are members of the council of management. The directors of Islamic Centre of England Ltd are the Trust's officers.

The trustees are responsible for the overall management and control of the Trust and meet regularly to manage its affairs. Staff resources are divided into religious and clerics, education and promotion of Islam, finance and administration.

Induction and training of new trustees

New trustees receive an induction early on in their tenure, thus ensuring their full understanding of the organization, its operations, its staff and its ethos and values. The induction process sets out briefs to new trustees, what is expected of trustees by the charity, the law and the Charity Commission. New trustees also receive regular updates and briefings on the above matters from senior trustees.

Reserves policy

Accumulated funds comprise the accumulated surplus or deficit on the statement of financial activities which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees of Islamic Centre in furtherance of the objectives of the charity. The funds as at 31 December 2020 were £4,329,283 (2019 - 4,267,141). The trustees consider that the ideal level of reserve of £100,000 deemed appropriate for the charity.

Related parties

The charity does not hold assets on behalf of another charity. The related parties are the directors who are also trustees.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

The managing trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which the organization faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.

The trustees have identified that the main risk for the charity is that of financial sustainability. The trustees regularly review the availability of liquid funds, along with actively managing the charity's working capital to ensure this risk is minimised.

Non-financial risks arising from the welfare activities and religious activities the charity engages in have also been considered. These consist of health and safety risks, food hygiene risks, and fire risks that are related to the performance of the charity's activities.

These risks are managed by ensuring health and safety, fire, and food hygiene laws and regulations are followed, along with regular training for staff working in all of these operational areas.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Islamic Centre of England Ltd (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 December 2020 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 December 2020 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our Report of the Independent Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Report of the Trustees for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Report of the Trustees has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of
Islamic Centre of England Ltd

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Report of the Trustees.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditors under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with regulations made under section 154 of that Act.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISA's (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

In the opinion of trustees the fair value of freehold property is in excess of £6m but no adjustments have been made in the balance sheet.
