Additional governance issues (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
  - relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

In this rapidly changing climate that we currently find ourselves in, the Vayyu foundation prides itself on being both proactive and reactive in facing those challenges. We have implemented safer working policies with regards to COVID 19 as well as updated our diversity, inclusion, ethics, conflict of interest, privacy policy, equipment maintenance as well as health & safety & safe guarding.

We have also elected a new Chair with 11 years senior management experience in a local charity to help lead us into the next stages of our development.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. Educating the public around the stigmatisation of the Dalit community in India.
2. Educating target groups about the plastic pollution in our oceans and how we can conserve them for future generations

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- Regular cleanups of plastic pollution on land, by boat + paddle boards
- Wellness sessions targeting mental health issues by the water, including meditation
- Tree planting sessions with hard to reach groups.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Due to the success of our cleanup days with volunteers, community group, schools + team days, people with leadership skills have organically made themselves known to set up their own 'Chapters' up and down the country.
