Any new appointments are carefully selected through a network of people who have demonstrated considerable experience and commitment to the advancement of the Islamic religion. Recruitment of trustees is undertaken by way of majority voting.

Objectives and activities

Our Aims

The objects of the charity are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:

• To advance the education of the public in the teachings and culture of the Islamic faith primarily but not exclusively through the provision of information and educational literature and materials.

Our Objectives

Our objectives are to promote the pure and pristine message of Islam in order to counter the ever increasing misunderstanding and misconceptions about Islam and to help build and promote an inclusive and cohesive society built on mutual respect and understanding.

Each year our trustees review our objectives and activities to ensure they continue to reflect our aims. In carrying out this review the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular its supplementary public guidance on the advancement of religion for the public benefit.

Use of Volunteers

Volunteers are vital in supporting the work of the charity. Volunteers are involved in assisting the day-to-day running of the charity as well as during the busy period of the Muslim holy month of Ramadhan. All volunteers give their time freely.

Activities and achievements

How our activities deliver public benefit

The charity carries out a range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit to the general public.

The main achievements of the charity were:

- Printing and distribution of The Meaning of the Qur'an;
- Printing and distribution of pamphlets and booklets explaining the basic message of Islam from its authentic sources;
- Distribution of books on various aspects of the Islamic faith and culture:
- Distribution of CDs, DVDs and other electronic and general media on various aspects of the Islamic faith and culture.

Financial Review

Reserves policy

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. Their policy is to hold enough funds to meet four months' operating costs of the charity. For this purpose, funds of £25,000.00 will be reserved once the charity has a bank account opened. An additional sum of £20,000.00 will be reserved for the reprinting of the Meaning of the Qur'an and literature which is the core distribution material of the charity.

Principal funding sources

The charity's main source of income is giving. This is through the use of fundraising. The core fundraising activity for the charity is through postal mail shots which are carried out with the help of the charity database which holds the details of donors, customers and those who have registered their interest in the activities of the charity through various means.

Mail shots are carried out twice a year, once before the beginning of the Muslim holy month of Ramadhan and once in the winter period.

Investment policy and objectives

The charity has no long-term investments. Our cash reserves are held in money market and deposit accounts.

Plans for future periods

We intend to maintain our existing range of activities to further the objectives of the charity. We are committed to helping facilitate the education of the general British public in their understanding of the Islamic faith and culture to help build and promote an inclusive and cohesive society built on mutual respect and understanding.
