• Together with donations from local businesses

The funds raised have been donated from the Charity to Cheshire East Council (CEC) who own Lyme Green Community Park. Ansa Environmental Services Ltd (ANSA), the operational arm of CEC manages the Lyme Green Park on behalf of CEC. ANSA have designed the park and are solely responsible for maintaining and installing the new equipment. They have used these funds to completely revitalise the area by installing a new path, improved drainage, wildlife area, sports equipment all ages and abilities and includes equipment for people with physical and sensory impairments, children's play equipment, sensory garden, reading library, assessable raised beds, play trail, picnic tables, some with game tops and seating.

By the Charity donating all the equipment to CEC it ensures that CEC are responsible for the ongoing maintenance, insurance and safety of the equipment, the public thus benefiting from being able to use any of the facilities.

The Charity have also received smaller donations from the community and also held and number of fundraising initiatives in the community to raise the awareness of the park which have aided the administration of the group such as running the website and paying for the insurance.

The accounts reflect the monies received direct by the Charity from some grant providers, donations from the public and local businesses and community fund raising activities. The Charity has a partnership agreement with CEC and Ansa and under this partnership agreement some grants have been applied for in the name of CEC, with the monies being paid direct to CEC and used for the purpose of the grant application. A project management fee payable to Ansa has been incorporated in all of the grant applications to ensure transparency and the work being carried out to meet the grant providers terms and conditions.

The Charity had six trustees for most of this year, (with a resignation of one) together with a number of volunteers, all give their time free of charge to the Charity for the benefit of the Charites aims and the benefit of the public who will use the facilities at Lyme Green Community Park. No trustee or volunteer receives any personal benefit from the activities undertaken by the Charity.

The maximum number of trustees according to our constitution was eight, this has now been changed to a maximum of twelve and we hope to attract new trustees for the future.

However, the local community have still been able to use and enjoy the equipment that has been put in place and there has been a noticed dramatic increase in individuals and families using the park facilities.
