Financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021 Chair's report

Cumbria Pride has gone from strength to strength and with Pam stepping down from the committee and as trustee we will continue to grow Cumbria Pride.

We've had another funny year this year not being able to get into supermarkets and meeting people but we managed a family fun day at Harraby Community Campus and Silloth's big fun day and they were brilliant, so nice being able to chat with others and have people see that we are still here.

We were able to hold Pride this year again at the castle which was great. We had a limited amount of people able to attend but you'd never know that, the day went great lots of amazing feedback from people attending, sponsors and stall holders as well as some already wanting to book for next year's Pride event.

We hope that going forward we can continue the work we are doing and get to more places in Cumbria to keep spreading the word as it's not just a one day event.

The virtual project is still going, and the public asked us to continue it, which is lovely to hear. We can reach a bigger audience in doing this and it's there for always on YouTube.

Jane-ann Clark, Chair and Trustee

Financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021 Secretary's report

Despite the uncertainty of the start of the year we progressed our plans for Pride, with obvious limitations.

It was more difficult to do most things at a distance but we forged on.

The event itself was more successful than we might have anticipated originally and this was down to the unceasing work by the committee and our supporters.

The public were very appreciative of the organisation and safety precautions, which ran very smoothly.

Carlisle Rotary and the supermarket volunteers made a great deal of effort and reported that they would do it again!

We learned valuable lessons and developed new skills appropriate to working and socialising at a distance.

Everyone who participated, from volunteers to performers, played a significant part in a very successful day.

Mary Cameron Parker, Secretary and Trustee

Financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021 Treasurer's report

After sadly having to cancel our event for 2020 due to the pandemic, we were very aware of the lack of our physical presence in the community. Cumbria Pride therefore began work on a Virtual Project to increase our digital presence during this time. We looked at a different LGBT+ topic each month, working with volunteers, our community, and various organisations to help raise awareness, and maintain a level of access to support.

Covid restrictions impacted greatly on our fundraising activities, so we are therefore extremely grateful to our sponsors Sellafield Ltd, Carlisle City Council, Cumbria County Council and Cumbria Fire Service, North Cumbria Integrated Care (NHS), Story Contracting, Adopt Coast to Coast, Duke Hare Barbers (Stanwix), Glasshouse, Rolling Pub Co, Stagecoach, Sticky Bits Café, Unison North West LGBT+ and joint Cumbria Branches (Cumbria and North Lancashire Health Branch, Cumbria County Branch, Cumbria Police Branch, and South Lakeland Branch) and the University of Cumbria. Sponsorship not only supports holding our main event, but our work overall.

Following our Covid vaccinations and the lifting of restrictions, we were able to attend the Family Fun Day at Harraby Campus, and Silloth's Mega Carnival, which gave an opportunity to fundraise but more importantly chance to meet and speak with members of our community ... and give out our famous whistles! We are grateful to The Rainbow Lottery, who have set up a page for Cumbria Pride, which raises 50p from each ticket sold each week. I also thank Jonathan for his amazing fundraising efforts this year, especially arranging a very successful evening of entertainment in aid of Carlisle Eden Mind and OutREACH Cumbria as well as Cumbria Pride.

We were also able to secure grant funding this year from Cumbria Community Foundation's Abbeyfield Carlisle Society Community First Fund and The National Lottery Community Fund. Part of this funding enabled us to provide a set area and refreshments for our volunteers at Pride 2021.

Being able to hold a Pride event this year was absolutely amazing, and once again I was truly humbled by the positive feedback and comments received. Due to Covid restrictions of course things were somewhat different, particularly the march was a huge miss, but the atmosphere and overall sense of unity on the day definitely made all of our hard work over the last 2 years more than worth it!

Approved by order of the board of Trustees on 15 July 2022 and signed on its behalf by:

SANE-ANN CLARK

Trustee

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of CUMBRIA LGBT PRIDE

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2021, which are set out on pages 8 to 12.

Responsibilities and basis of report

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

My examination of the charity's accounts is carried out in accordance with section 145 of the Act. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no material matter has come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that the requirements:

- 1. to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act;
- 2. to prepare accounts which accord with those records; or
- 3. to prepare accounts which comply with the accounting requirements of the Act

have not been met, or that

4. further information is needed for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of matters I to 4 listed above and, in following the Directions of the Charity Commission I have found no matters which require to be drawn to your attention.
