- i) COVID-19. The global Covid-19 outbreak continues to constitute a material risk into the 2021 year-end on the Foundation's future plans, investment and grantmaking strategies and budgeting processes. The effect on this year's financial statements has been considered in Note 1.2, Going Concern. The Trustees have reviewed the Foundation's risk management focus in light of this risk and are satisfied with the mitigation systems in place.
- ii) Capital preservation of the endowment. The endowment is invested in a diversified portfolio of assets. Trustees meet regularly with the Foundation's Investment Manager to discuss asset allocation recommendations, review key risk parameters, including value-at-risk, volatility levels, and foreign exchange exposures,
- iii) Risk of non-payment of promised grants. The Trustees define a grant making budget with the investment manager, who is required to hold sufficient funds in cash and cash equivalents to cover 12 months of operations and planned donations.
- iv) Governance, financial and operational risk of supporting small and growing charities. The Trustees use an extensive due diligence process with failured reporting requirements to ensure grantee legitimacy, solvency, and highest chance of intended impact
- Country and political risk of international grant making. The grant portfolio is global, with a high concentration of organisations working

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charifable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

The frustees are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstatement, whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or apparent material misstatement, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF T&J MEYER FAMILY FOUNDATION LIMITED

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Act 2011 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Trustees' Annual Report is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or the charitable company has not kept adequate accounting records, or the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or we have not received all the information and explanations we required for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the trustees' responsibilities statement set out on page 4, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

The trustees have elected for the financial statements to be audited in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 rather than the Companies Act 2006, Accordingly we have been appointed as auditors under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with regulations made under section 154 of that Act.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

The objectives of our audit in respect of fraud, are, to identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements due to fraud; to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the assessed risks of material misstatement due to fraud, through designing and implementing appropriate responses to those assessed risks, and to respond appropriately to instances of fraud or suspected fraud identified during the audit. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and delection of fraud rests with both management and those charged with governance of the

Our approach was as follows

- We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory requirements applicable to the charitable company and considered that the most significant are [the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 2011, the Charity SORP, and UK financial reporting standards as issued by the financial Reporting Councit.
- We obtained an understanding of how the charitable company complies with these requirements by discussions with management and
- We obtained all understanding or low did standards supply supply those charged with governance.

 We assessed the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements, including the risk of material misstatement due to fraud and how the same of the same it might occur, by holding discussions with management and those charged with governance
- We inquired of management and those charged with governance as to any known instances of non-compliance or suspected non-
- We inquired or management and most complaine with laws and regulations.

 Based on this understanding, we designed specific appropriate audit procedures to identify instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. This included making enquiries of management and those charged with governance and obtaining additional corroborative evidence as required,

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (UK) we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also

- Identify and assess the disks of material misstalement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purposes of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the charitable company's internal control. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by - the frustees.

 Conclude on the appropriateness of the frustees use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, if we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the charitable company to cease to continue as a going concern.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF T&J MEYER FAMILY FOUNDATION LIMITED

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial
- statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

 Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the charitable company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit report.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and liming of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Use of our report
This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 8 of the Charities Act 2011. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those malters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to any party other than the charity and charity's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinion we have formed.

1.2 Going concern

Going concern
The Trustees have assessed whether the use of going concern is appropriate in preparing these financial statements and have considered possible events or conditions that might cast doubt on the ability of the charitable company to continue as a going concern. The Trustees have made this assessment for a period of at least one year from the date of the approval of these financial statements. In particular, the Trustees have considered the impact of Covid-19, inflation, and increasing interest rates have had and continue to have on the Foundation's operations and forecasts and have taken account of pressures on valuations and income. As such, the property assets continue to be held at a reduced estimated value and while the decreased 2021 investment and rental income streams have sustained in to 2021 these that the property assets the property assets and the property assets the property assets to the property assets the property assets to the property assets to the property assets the property assets to the property assets the property as 2022, these are not expected to materially affect the Foundation's ability to continue to operate, give grants or support its beneficiaries for the next twelve months. After making enquiries, the Trustees have concluded that there is a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The Foundation therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

Donations and investment income are recognised as income when receipt is probable, the charity is entitled to the income and the amount is measurable. Investments donated are included at the value to the charity when gifted where this can be quantified.

Expenditure is recognised in the period in which it is incurred. Expenditure includes attributable VAT which cannot be recovered and is allocated to the particular activity where the cost relates to that activity.

1.5 Grants payable

Grants made are accounted for when the grant has been approved by the Trustees and notified in writing to the beneficiary, Multi year grants are accounted for when either the recipient has a reasonable expectation that they will receive a grant and the Trustees have agreed to pay the grant without condition, or the recipient has reasonable expectation that they will receive a grant and any condition attached to the grant is outside the control of the Foundation.

Investments held as fixed assets are revalued at mid-market value at the balance sheet date and the gain or loss taken to the Statement of Financial Activities. Exchange gains or losses on investments denominated in foreign currencies are included in gains/losses on investments.

1.7 Investment Properties

Investment properties are included at open market value. Changes in the value of investment properties are taken to the Statement of Financial Activities. Exchange gains or losses on investment properties are included in gains/losses on investments

The fair value of investment properties has been arrived at following a third party valuation of the property by Frost Meadowcroft conducted in March 2022. The valuation has been recognised at £9,000,000 and converted into US dollars at the year end rate. The Trustees do not consider the fair value of the properties to be materially different at the year end.

The total property balance of $12,140,460 includes expenditure related to improvements to the Foundation's property assets as they relate to an ongoing property development, $22,924 of which occurred during 2021. These improvements were passed through MCo Services Limited, a company connected to a Trustee, as the project development agent and at arms length.
