Annual Report for 2021 - 2022

Summary

Fylde Foodbank is an independent organisation, but it is also part of a national network of foodbanks each having a similar mission. Quality assurance is supported by membership of this network under the auspices of the Trussell Trust.

The objective of Fylde Foodbank is the prevention of poverty in the Fylde Borough area by providing emergency food supplied to individuals in need and/or charities or organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

The Trustees actions and activities have been in accordance with the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

After facing unprecedented times in 2020-2021 due to the pandemic, this financial year 2021-2022 the foodbank has provided 3 days of emergency food to 2786 adults and 1379 children. An increase of 539 adults and children fed compared to 2020-2021.

As Covid restrictions remained in place at both centres it meant that clients were still unable to enter our buildings, meaning little opportunity for one-to-one signposting.

Many referral agencies remained closed with the majority of referrals coming via Fylde Borough Council (682 out of 1708). Grateful thanks for all the support they have given.

During the year the foodbank provided support for many asylum seekers locating in Fylde. The families arrived with no recourse to public funds so were grateful for assistance the foodbank was able to give.

Food Distribution

Demand for our foodbank services increases. This financial year food distributed to clients amounted to 42358kgs. A total of 1708 vouchers have been fulfilled across the centres.

1184 at St Anne's, (69.32%)
500 (29.32%) at Kirkham and
24 (1.41%) at Warton.

A large number of emergency parcels were handed directly to local organisations from both centres especially over the Christmas period. These parcels were distributed directly by them.

The Trussell Trust foodbanks guidelines for users, are individuals are allowed to visit up to three times, usually in a six-month period, unless there are exceptional circumstances. The foodbank does not wish to create a dependency culture. Towards the end of 2022 however, the Trustees agreed that the number of visits could be increased to six in a six-month period. "Low Income" on referral vouchers is the main reason for individuals being in crisis. This shows that for many there is insufficient money to afford the basics.

Relationships

Thank you to our local supermarkets – Booths, Sainsbury's, Morrison's, Aldi, Lidl, McColl's Warton and the Co-op for their continued support. A total of 17805kgs collected from customer in-store donation points over the year.

The foodbanks previous relationship with Tesco in Blackpool came to an end when it was agreed that FareShare would benefit from donations.

Many local Churches, schools, doctors' surgeries and business groups regularly help with donations, as do the residents of Fylde. A big thank you to everyone who drops a tin or a packet into our in-store donation bins. It is so much appreciated.

Volunteers

Fylde Foodbank is a volunteer run organisation. The foodbank has an extraordinary team of volunteers many of whom have been with the foodbank since it's opening in 2014. Everyone works very hard from inputting data to stacking shelves, packing parcels, and collecting from supermarkets. To all our volunteers thank you.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Fylde Foodbank

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2022 set out on pages three to eight.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

Have not been met; or

- (2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
