Charitable Objects

Objects to promote human rights (as set out in the universal declaration of human rights and subsequent united nations conventions and declarations) throughout the united kingdom by: educating the public about human rights and raising awareness of human rights issues by means of lectures delivered by eminent practitioners and establishing an award to honour an individual or organisation that has made an outstanding contribution to human rights.

Deliverables

The recipient of the Hans Albrecht Foundation Human Rights Award for 2021 was Professor David Nott, Consultant Surgeon at St Mary's Hospital, London.

Professor Nott specialises in vascular and trauma surgery and also performs cancer surgery at the Royal Marsden Hospital. He is an authority in laparoscopic surgery and was the first surgeon to combine laparoscopic and vascular surgery.

For the past twenty-five years Nott has taken unpaid leave each year to work for the aid agencies Médecins Sans Frontières, the International Committee of the Red Cross and Syria Relief. He has provided surgical treatment to patients in conflict and catastrophe zones in Bosnia, Afghanistan, Sierra Leone, Liberia, Ivory Coast, Chad, Darfur, Yemen, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Haiti, Iraq, Pakistan, Libya, Syria, Central African Republic, Gaza and Nepal. As well as treating patients affected by conflict and catastrophe and raising hundreds of thousands of pounds for charitable causes, Nott teaches advanced surgical skills to local medics and surgeons when he is abroad. In Britain, he teaches the Surgical Training for the Austere Environment (STAE) course at the Royal College of Surgeons.

Hans Albrecht Foundation Annual Lecture was delivered by Iris Veysey and entitled, Refugees: Forced to Flee

In her lecture, Iris Veysey explored a century of refugee experiences, from Nazi Germany's persecution of Jews and the Kindertransport to the Calais 'jungle' and treacherous Mediterranean crossings.

Iris Veysey is Curator, Art and Contemporary Conflict, at the Imperial War Museum. She has recently worked on Refugees: Forced to Flee, on display at the IWM until May 2021. Veysey has previously worked at the Victorian and Albert Museum and the Science Museum.
