Objects of the charity

The charity is a charitable company limited by guarantee, and its governing document is its memorandum and articles of association. The charity's objects are the promotion of the Christian religion, and in particular the propagation and dissemination by all means of Christian literature, artefacts and stationery, and Christian visual and audio aids of all kinds including – but not limited to – computer software, audio tapes, compact discs and DVDs.

In furtherance of these objects, the charity operates a Christian bookshop at premises at 147-149 Streatham High Road. The shop is run by full and part time paid staff, supported by part time voluntary assistants. The full time manager undertakes day to day operation of the shop, whilst policy and administration is closely controlled by the Trustees. The members can confirm that the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit (section 4 of the 2011 Charities Act) has been considered in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

Review of activities

A summary of the results and achievements of the year's activities is given in the statements of financial activities on page 5. The trading conditions have been extremely challenging and turnover has fallen significantly compared to last year. We are extremely thankful and indeed grateful for the donations made by our blessed donors and government coronavirus grants received, which enabled us to survive such a difficult period. Lockdown was unprecedented causing considerable disruption to our business operations. During lockdown, we were unable to continue with our outreach ministry. The Trustees have continued to receive donations and gifts from loyal supporters of the charity. Owing to the very kind donations that we have received this year, by the year-end, the work continues to be viable. Our biggest asset is our amazing staff who continue to work tirelessly to exceed customer expectations.

Reserves policy

The Trustees aim to establish unrestricted reserves at a level that provides adequate working capital, together with funding for any planned future developments. Accepting that we can improve our current level of unrestricted reserves, the Trustees therefore continue to work strive to improve our financial situation. In addition, the Trustees continue with a policy to improve the stock turnover figure.

Unrestricted reserves decreased to £24,838 at 31 January 2022 from £61,498 at 31 January 2021 due primarily to a higher level of donations and government grants received during lockdown. Trustees believe the charity continues to be a going concern.

Risk factors

The Trustees have kept the charity's exposure to risk under careful review, both in terms of financial risk and operation risks such as health and safety. Systems, procedures and appropriate insurance cover have been put in place to mitigate those risks as far as possible.

Recruitment & training of Trustees

The Trustees are conscious of the ongoing need to ensure that new Trustees are appointed who can bring appropriate skills and experience to the charity. Approaches are made to suitable candidates when appropriate, and the opportunity is given for potential Trustees to observe the existing Trustees in their roles for a period prior to making a decision on their appointment. Where appropriate, Trustees are encouraged to obtain training in areas relevant to their responsibilities.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required to prepare accounts, in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (UK GAAP) for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charitable company's state of affairs at the end of the year and of its income and expenditure for that period. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those accounts, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities, and for maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the company's website. The Trustees believe there is no relevant review information of which the charity's independent reviewers are unaware and each Trustee has taken all steps the he ought to have taken as a Trustee in order to make himself aware of any relevant review information and to establish that the independent reviewers are aware of that information.

I have examined the financial statements on pages 5 to 10 for the year ended 31 January 2022. These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out therein.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charities Commissioner under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioner. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking of explanations from you as Trustee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - 1.a. to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - 1.b. to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principals of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; and
2. to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
