FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED 31 MARCH 2022

---

The Trustees present their annual report and accounts for the six months ended 31 March 2022.

Governing document

The governing document for the foundation is the constitution adopted in September 2021.

Objects

The advancement of the arts for the public benefit, in particular the choreographic work and heritage of Sir Richard Alston, in such ways as the trustees think fit including through reconstructions and revivals of works.

The advancement of education of the public in contemporary dance, in particular but not exclusively through the training of artists and teachers, the production of educational materials and to promote research for the public benefit in all aspects of that subject and to publish the useful results.

Statement of Trustees responsibilities

Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the income and expenditure of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Trust will continue in the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Trust and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Trust and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Review of the six months and future developments

The Richard Alston Foundation was formally approved as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation by the Charity Commission on 24th September 2021 following the submission of an application in January 2021 and a period of consultation and review.

During 2022/23 the Foundation will receive the rights to the dance works created by Sir Richard Alston during his tenure at Contemporary Dance Trust (The Place). These rights will be the central to the work of the Foundation, both in terms of a programme of educational activities and the licensing of performances of compositions. The Foundation will work with the New York Library of the Performing Arts to establish an archive of digitised material which will be available for research.

Financial review and reserves policy

During the six month period to 31 March 2022, there was no financial activity.

The Trustees will work to establish the core educational activities of the Foundation and publicise the activities which will be available.

---

The Trustees' policy is to build and maintain a level of reserves, which will provide a stable base for its continuing activities.

No Trustees received any remuneration during the six months.

Risk Management

The Trustees will continue to review the financial position of the Foundation and will take steps to ensure that commitments are not made which cannot be met.

Public Benefit

The Trustees will consider and review the core activities of the Foundation to ensure that access is given to a wide range of participants and audience members to a high quality of contemporary dance.
