Annual Report YOUTH EDUCATION SPORT 2021/22

Introduction

It is a pleasure to prepare an annual report reflecting on the pasted years achievements. I will review each section of are work and ad photographs where possible.

Mokono Women's Project

Sharon enters her last year of her 'a' level course and Dan enters senior 1 we continue to support Teddy and her baby. The group continues to receive a monthly allowance to help to continue the sewing and hairdressing courses as well as classes in hygiene, health and nuitrition. The groups continue to run small investment programmes in chicken raising fish farming and agricultural projects.

Ggollo Projects

The young women continue with their income raising work by selling second hand baby clothes sent by us from our charity shop This helps them with developing self esteem team work and gaining an understanding of commerce.

We are providing Robert, an orphan, with his fees and residential education.

The Charity Shop

This continues to be our sole source of income. Managed by Monica and myself five days a week and by Joy, Robert and Lois two days a week. We all are helped a great deal by Paul a local odd job man who help with putting out our wares and bring them in after trading and helping out with bags for recycling with out him we would struggle.

Chairman.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEE OF YOUTH EDUCATION SPORT

I report on the accounts of the charitable company for the year ended 31 March 2022, which are set out on pages 1 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustee and examiner

Having been satisfied that the charity is not subject to audit and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking explanations from you as trustee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
