Independent Examiner report to the Trustees of

FOUNDATION MAMA CHRISTINE MONGI

I report on the accounts of foundation mama christine mongi for the year ended 31 March 2022

Respective responsibility of trustees and examiner

The charity,s trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the charities Act 2011(the 2011 Act)and that an independent examination is needed

it is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 act to follow the procedures laid down in general directions given by charity commission under sect 145(5)(b) of the 2011act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner,s report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the charity commssion an examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and comparision of the accounts presented with those records it also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in accounts and seeking of expalnation from you as trustee concering any such matters

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be require in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and report is limited to those matters set out the statement below

Independent examiner,s statement in connection with my examination no matter has come to my attention

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirement to keep accounting records and in accoradance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requiremenmts of the 2011 act

have not been met or

2 to which in my opinion attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
