Review of activities

Albirr Foundation UK has continued to provide a place of worship in Leyton, East London as well as in six other locations in the UK. With things going back to normal following pandemic, all usual activities and services were able to resume once again.

Financial support was provided to individuals, families and organizations struggling through the cost of living crisis. Albirr also organised and distributed food four times a week during the Holy month of Ramadan. Several thousand books have also been distributed free to organizations and individuals.

This year's Quran competition was able to resume once again after a break of two years. The competition was held in London and we saw a record number of applicants apply. The competition was a great success and everyone who attended thoroughly enjoyed the whole experience.

Financial review

During the year the Foundation had net incoming resources of £194,542 (2021: £ 37,921)

The principal funding source of the Foundation during the year was El Rahma Charity Trust of £318,270 (2021: £194,860).

Albirr Foundation UK grants donation to causes, charities and individuals in line with the objectives stated above including those advocating the advancement of Islamic religion and education.

Risk management

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charitable company is exposed to and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate those risks.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the charitable company that unrestricted funds which have not been designated for a specific purpose should be maintained at a level equivalent to four months expenditure. The Trustees consider that this level of reserve will ensure the continuation of the normal activities of the Foundation should there be a significant drop in funding. This level of reserve has been more than maintained during the year.

I report to the charitable company's trustees on my examination of the financial Statements for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and eligible for independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 of the 2011 Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.
