EUROPEAN ACADEMY FOR JEWISH LITURGY

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 NOVEMBER 2022

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 November 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The main objectives of the European Academy for Jewish Liturgy (EAJL) are to train people to be inspired leaders of Jewish prayer and worship through studying liturgical traditions, history, melodies and cantillations, preserving these traditions for future generations, and mentoring and providing trained leaders of prayer particularly but not exclusively in small and remote communities.

Significant activities

The charity provides services to individuals and communities in the UK and Europe and its activities fall under three main categories:

One-to-one Mentoring Programme

Seminars and courses

Consultancy

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Objectives and achievements in 2021 -2022

EAJL's achievements include:

- Continued and commenced training of our high-level Ba'al Tefillah Diploma students, introducing new students to this course increasing those studying to 8 and celebrating the graduation of one of the students.
- Continued the provision of invaluable training to community prayer leaders through EAJL's One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- The third EAJL Online Learning Day in the summer was a great success, featuring teachers in both Sephardi and Ashkenazi traditions.
- We endeavoured to run a Sephardi track alongside the regular Ashkenazi track in all seminars and online study courses but take up was low for a number of reasons, leading us to plan a more directed approach for next year (see below)
- Continuous online courses over the year covered topics such as: Shabbat l'Chol; Singing the Haggadah (one in the Ashkenazi tradition and one in the Baghdadi tradition); Eicha, Kabbalat Shabbat and Ma'ariv for Shabbat and Chanukah song sessions in both Ashkenazi and Sephardi traditions.
- We increased the number of teachers for our online courses
- Some courses were led by EAJL alumni: Ba'alat Tefillah Saralee Shrell Fox (based in Jerusalem) and Ba'al Tefillah Simon Gordon (based in London).
- We continued to train our first Cantorial Smicha student (in the Sephardi tradition).
- EAJL Retreat: For the first time in four years we were able to run the EAJL T'filla Leaders Retreat in person in Oxfordshire. 23 people attended and it was extremely successful
- EAJL continued to be recognised as one of the five major providers of learning for Masorti Europe.
- EAJL continued to develop the relationship with Masorti UK and Masorti Europe and the Conservative Yeshiva in Jerusalem
- EAJL continued to try to reach more students across the world to increase accessibility to our courses and teaching.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

EAJL's net assets amounted to £32,498 at 30 November 2022, an increase of £6,290 over the position in the previous year. The Trustees consider that this level of reserves is sufficient to enable EAJL to carry out its objectives. The main source of revenue comes from the provision of mentoring services for students. This activity enables EAJL to train future leaders of Jewish prayer and worship. The Trustees review the financial position on a regular basis to ensure that it can meet its obligations as and when they fall due.

FUTURE PLANS OBJECTIVES FOR 2022-2023

The charity will be building on the success of its past and current activities. In particular:

- We will continue to develop our website and financial systems to make these more efficient and cost effective
- EAJL will plan and run its programme in the Conservative Yeshiva summer programme in Jerusalem in July 2023.
- EAJL will continue to provide customised training via its One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- EAJL will continue to train t'filla leaders in our Ba'al T'filla and Cantorial Smicha programmes
- Planning for EAJL online courses will continue on the two year programme plan, with more bespoke courses for French Masorti communities in collaboration with the communities
- EAJL will plan and run our fourth online learning day in July 2023.
- Continued work will be done to increase awareness of EAJL's work through its collaboration with Masorti UK.
- A new generation continues the work of EAJL with the support of its founders.
- EAJL's two high-level programmes - the Ba'al Tefillah Diploma programme and the Cantorial S'micha programme - will continue to develop.
- EAJL will continue to develop our training and programmes both online and in person and endeavour to make our learning relevant and accessible, including financially.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 NOVEMBER 2022

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
