(2) To develop the capacity and skills of socially disadvantaged groups in our community in such a way that they are better able to identify, and help meet, their needs and to participate more fully in society; in

		particular but not exclusively through raising awareness, promoting, sustaining and increasing individual and collective knowledge, skills and expertise, through the practical development of individual capabilities, competences, skills and understanding through formal training, informal talks and capacity building in voluntary services, according to Christian principles and the Street Pastor Urban Trinity principle of church, police and local government working together for the benefit of the community. ## Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We patrol the village of Uppermill on a Saturday evening. In addition, we patrol during community events such the Whit Friday band contests and the Rush cart festival. We no longer supervise school children in the village on a Wednesday afternoon. The school now remains open. There is a lively nighttime scene in the village at weekends and we aim to help those who find themselves in difficult situations e.g., separated from friends and vulnerable, drunk and in need of help getting home. We have dealt with some drug related incidents, where youngsters have become very unwell and needed assistance. We provide bottles of water and flip flops when required! We are a calming influence and a positive presence on the High Street, benefiting the public, keeping people safe. The reaction to our presence has been encouraging and many people do express their gratitude for our efforts. We liaise with the security staff

		and publicans aiming to support them. We can act as they advise, moving to places where we can be most useful. We send bimonthly reports on our patrols to the local police sergeant. We can supply information about local issues/ incidents which they may be unaware of. We have expressed our concern to the police about the boy racers who drive through the village at dangerous speeds. The potential for a serious accident when so many people stand in the road is obvious. The pavements are narrow in places and some pubs have little outside space for smokers who congregate outside and invariably end up in the road. We also sent reports to the police about the traffic congestion which occurs when taxis park on double yellow lines then do 3 point turns in the road just as buses, cars and people attempt to get past. Street Pastors patrol in a set uniform distinguished by the street pastor logo. This sometimes elicits questions from the public about our Christian faith. When asked to, we share our faith in Jesus and his love for everyone. We provide pastoral care as the "Church in action" in public places. We support the spiritual, social, emotional, physical and mental well-being of all individuals who need care - this is of public benefit.
