- Equal Opportunities and Diversity
- Domestic Violence

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

To promote the care and upbringing of children of separated families for the public benefit by:

- providing a safe, secure and neutral location where such children can spend time with the parent they no longer live with, or other family members they would not otherwise see
- providing the highest quality, child focussed service for the benefit of the children of separated families;
- facilitating the contact arrangements in ways which are in the best interests of the children;
- assisting the families to move forward and, where appropriate, to move to contact arrangements away from the Centre.

The Contact Zone in Bridgend began in 2014 after District Judge Morgan requested that a centre should be established in Bridgend County Borough. It would allow children of separated parents to maintain valuable contact with a parent or members of their family in a safe and fun environment. There was no such facility at the time.

The Contact Zone, a registered charitable incorporated organisation based at Nolton Church Hall, Bridgend, was the answer to this request. It is supported by a highly-trained member of staff and a number of trained volunteers who work on a rota basis. All staff and volunteers have passed Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.

The centre is open every Saturday morning and Wednesday afternoon, offering play sessions, games, arts and crafts in a fun environment for parents and their loved ones.

Families that attend the centre are referred by the court or they refer themselves due to issues that have arisen from conflict after a relationship breakdown. Parents require a safe place for children to meet parents or family members without fear of conflict and with support. Contact normally takes place until a resolution through court, mediation or discussion can be found.

The basic elements of supported contact are as follows:

- Impartiality.
- Staff and volunteers are available for assistance but there is no close observation, monitoring or evaluation of individual contacts/conversations.

- Several families are usually together in one or a number of rooms.
- Encouragement for families to develop mutual trust and consider more satisfactory family venues.
- Apart from attendance dates and times, no detailed report will be made to a referrer, CAFCASS, a party's solicitor or court, unless there is a risk of harm to the child, parent or Centre worker.
- An acknowledgement that it be viewed as a temporary arrangement to be reviewed after an agreed period of time.

Since opening in February 2014, The Contact Zone has overseen contact for 129 families for a range of time periods, varying from four weeks to 4 years depending on the type of referral and the need or willingness to progress contact to a more natural environment. A court order will stipulate the length of contact but a self-referral by a client themselves is likely to need a longer period of time with more support and guidance to reach an amicable agreement to avoid court.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The role of the volunteer is to oversee discreetly the meetings between the families, support the children and interaction if needed and generally assist with the day to day running of the centre. There are opportunities for volunteers who wish to learn more, to sit in on pre-visits and to learn about the responsibilities of running a centre.

The volunteer will:

- . assist with the setting up and the cleaning up
- . oversee discreetly the meetings between the families
- . support the children and interaction if needed
- . assist with the day to day running of the centre
- . provide a healthy and safe environment for families to meet for contact
- . report any concerns regarding safeguarding or child protection immediately to The Manager
- . Ensure that all service users, visitors, staff and volunteers follow The Contact Zone's Policies and Procedures at all times.

There was an increase in referrals this year due to the backlog from Covid and the effects Covid has had on families

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Since opening in February 2014, The Contact Zone has overseen contact for 129 families for a range of time periods, varying from four weeks to 4 years depending on the type of referral and the need or willingness to progress contact to a more natural environment.

During 2022 The Contact Zone oversaw contact for 32 families over 1-2 hours. One family were still ongoing from 2017 with 3 still ongoing from 2018 and 2 from 2019 and 2 from 2020.

We have been able to make a slow return to normal after the Covid 19 Pandemic and have had to add another day to our contact to ensure all our clients needs are met within Covid regulations.

This has also enabled us to meet the rise in demand for contact
