Charity name: TIYENI (CIO)

Charity registration number: 1194177

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The relief of poverty in Malawi and neighbouring countries by the provision of financial assistance to support training and education of farming communities with a focus on the conservation of natural resources in order to help prevent food poverty.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	In December 2020, the Trustees of Tiyeni Fund (charity n° 1113274) decided to incorporate under the name of Tiyeni. This new CIO was registered with the Charity Commission on 22 nd April 2021; but for reasons outside the Trustees' control, the CIO was unable to take over Tiyeni Fund's operational activities until the beginning of December 2022. So, Tiyeni CIO's accounts for the year ending 31 st March 2023 only provide a financial record for that latter part of the 12-month period. A more complete record of all operational activities during the year can be found in the Annual Report for Tiyeni Fund. The newly formed Tiyeni CIO continues the work of Tiyeni Fund in alleviating poverty by training farming communities in Deep Bed Farming to prevent soil erosion and encourage the production of more and wider nutritional crops. The Deep Bed Farming method captures rainwater and prevents erosion and leads to the eradication of hunger and enhancing social capital of farming communities.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity	Para 1.18	The Trustees have regard to all relevant guidance issued by the Charity Commission.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Tiyeni does not make grants.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	A key element in Tiyeni's training of farming communities is the building of social capital in those communities. This is essential for communities to have sustainable and enriched livelihoods. Tiyeni only trains communities that request it. No member of the community that wishes to be trained is left behind.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	A total of 4 volunteers have provided much valued support to Tiyeni in the UK over the course of these 12 months. Volunteers assisted with variety of tasks, including marketing, social media, web design, and monitoring and evaluation data analysis. All have made a vital contribution to Tiyeni's work and we thank them for their support. Volunteering activities were transferred from Tiyeni Fund to Tiyeni CIO during the course of this 12-month period.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Sorp reference Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	During the 12 months ending 31 March 2023, Tiyeni not only consolidated adoption of Deep Bed Farming (DBF) techniques in those locations/areas established in previous years, but continued to be very successful in spreading the DBF method to new areas. There are now 3 fully established hubs in Northern, Central and Southern Malawi.
		It is estimated that more than 30,000 smallholder farmers (65% female) in Malawi are practising DBF; and we have now published the 4 th edition of our Training Manual. DBF training results in transformational improvements to the livelihoods of the farmers who adopt DBF.
		The DBF method has continued to perform exceptionally well for farmers in 2022-2023. This was particularly noticeable during the dry season, where DBF fields significantly outperformed traditional farming methods. Cyclone Freddy once again highlighted the vulnerability of subsistence farmers and their families, particularly in southern areas. Farmers practicing DBF reported less damage to their crops, stressing the importance of the method for climate change mitigation. For the second year running, Tiyeni provided much needed recovery support to farmers in the south, helping them to recover more quickly from the cyclone damage.

It has become clear that Deep Bed Farming (DBF) has a critical role to play in dealing with the issue of groundwater decline, topsoil erosion and climate resilience too. Tiyeni has reviewed its strategy to incorporate formal catchment management; and the training of communities now extends to catchment management. Tiyeni is working closely with the Malawian Ministry of Agriculture to embed this approach into their national water catchment plans; and holds regular meetings with national and international organisations who are focused on water security and specifically rainwater harvesting, where DBF can achieve a 90% capture rate.
Tiyeni's continued partnership with the Soil Food Web School in America has provided a podium to promote the DBF methodology – also reaching other organisations in other countries. Tiyeni was the Soil Food Web's charity partner at their Soil Regen Summits in 2022 and 2023. These events hosted international names in the soil science and land husbandry world, attracted a huge global audience and raised many donations towards Tiyeni's work.
Tiyeni has also increased its partnership network in other ways, through discussions Farm Africa, Flora and Fauna International, Stockholm International Water Institute, WWF and SNV. We also attended the Africa Food Systems Summit 2023 in Tanzania to explore how delivering DBF can best align with the strategies of other organisations and governments.
Tiyeni has always worked closely with academia; and research is a critical part of our work. As a further example of Tiyeni's success in this field, we have formed a consortium with Loughborough University and The Consortium for Battery

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	Achievements exceeded expectations during this period.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	We have again been successful in securing funds to carry forward new projects and to provide continuity for existing projects. The extent of growth and spread of DBF methodology will always depend on raising appropriate funding and during 2023 Tiyeni has appointed a fund raising manager in UK.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	Tiyeni does not have an investment portfolio.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	As stated in the opening section of this Annual Report, operational activities in Malawi continued under the UK direction of Tiyeni Fund until December 2022; at which point they came under the control of Tiyeni CIO.
		During the 12-month period covered by the 2022-23 accounts, Tiyeni has effectively completed the transition from its original status as a small charitable trust (founded in 2005) to a CIO.
		The previous set of accounts (for Tiyeni Fund) covered a 15-month period from 1 st January 2021 to 31 st March 2022; as the Trustees decided to change the accounting period to align more closely with the end of the farming year in Malawi.
		Allowing for the shorter 12-month period shown in the 2022-23 accounts, revenue from donations actually increased by 8.4% relative to the previous accounting period; which put the Trustees in a position to expand operational expenditure by almost 20%. Total funds carried forward at the year end, combined across both charities, amounted to some £35,500.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The priority for 2022 has been to achieve the handover of fund-raising and other administrative/management functions to the new CIO. Our reserve policy is to build a small reserve of approximately 1 month's working capital by the end of the 2023-4 financial year; and to continue to build that growth in 2024-5, to hold 3-4 month's working capital. As our signature DBF training is experiencing high demand, due to its technological advantages, there is a significant growth opportunity. Tiyeni will continue to grow its activity through engagement of in-country activities, such as projects funded by the African Development bank. This scale of reserve will allow the CIO to continue to grow; but will provide financial security to mitigate irregular cashflow during the course of operations.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Tiyeni had no significant reserves at the end of the 2022-23 financial year.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	See statement in preceding paragraphs.

Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	Not applicable.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	The Trustees recognise the uncertainties arising from recent/current macroeconomic and global political events; but consider that, through the hard work and dedication, both of its employees and volunteers, Tiyeni has shown an ability to survive, and indeed to grow, through challenging times over the last 2 years.

Additional information (optional) You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	<ul> <li>Our principal donors in the 12 months ending 31 March 2023 included:</li> <li>a) The Joffe Charitable Trust – a £31,500 grant towards UK capacity building.</li> <li>b) £20,792 was donated from our related charity Tiyeni Fund (1113274) as part of the transfer of operational activities.</li> <li>c) The Network for Social Change gave £20,999 to support work in Chiwamba.</li> <li>d) £28,000 was received in donations from individuals as either one-off or monthly contributions.</li> </ul>
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	Dissemination of DBF techniques not only delivers financial benefits to subsistence farmers; but also enhances social cohesion within those farming communities.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The principal risks facing this charity are much the same as those facing any similar charitable organisation. The Trustees' primary concern is to ensure that funds are available for each specific new project before that project is commenced; and to maintain a sufficient balance in unrestricted funds to meet central overheads and "core" costs of the operational team in Malawi.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Constitution approved by the Trustees and registered with the Charity Commission on 22 nd April 2021.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	The charity is a CIO.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The election/appointment of new Trustees is governed by clause 9 in the CIO's Constitution. There must be a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 12 Trustees. New Trustees are, and will be, selected in order to best meet the needs and objectives of the charity, as and when a need arises. All new Trustees begin with a trial period of 6 months before being invited to take on a more permanent role. Melanie Bradley was appointed as a new Trustee in July 2022.

Additional information (optional) You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	Tiyeni CIO was set up to replace the charitable trust (Tiyeni Fund) which was established in 2005, and which has been operating since then. The transfer of assets to the CIO, and the handover of operational activities, did not fully take place in the 12 months ended on 31 st March 2023, but has been completed before the end of the 2023 calendar year.
