The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

The Charity also trades under the names B2A (Working name) and Lisa Potts Children's Trust (Former name).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Policies and objectives

Our mission is to work with communities to enable children and their families to realise their potential. The outcomes we aim to achieve are:

- To raise the self-esteem of children (by providing a range of new experiences)
- To raise the aspirations of children (by offering opportunities which build confidence and self-esteem)
- To improve school attainment and attendance (by providing support for children experiencing barriers to learning and increasing creativity across the curriculum)
- To increase the amount of positive parent and child interactions (by providing 'Parent Nurturing Groups' and encouraging the increasing involvement of parents and carers in B2A activities)
- To encourage families to have positive feelings about their community (by promoting wider community involvement and building on crucial links with other community organisations).

The following operational objectives have been identified:

- To deliver our core business (after-school clubs, holiday activities, creative activities, counselling and mentoring, family links and parent nurturing groups) to new audiences in other locations
- To deliver high quality counselling, mentoring and creative activities across the Black Country Borough's, in order to overcome childrens' barriers to learning and build capacity of mainstream service providers in the area
- To ensure Peer Support is a part of the mainstream practice of schools in the Black Country.
- The Trustees develop a robust monitoring/evaluation framework approach; including an exit strategy for the contingency that aim 5 is not achieved
- To secure sufficient resources to sustain the planned activities.

In setting objectives and planning for activities, the Trustees have given due consideration to general guidance published by the Charity Commission relating to public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Review of activities

B2A offers a wide variety of activities and services in schools across the Black Country B2A is a children's charity that aims to enhance the self-esteem, personal development, educational experience and future aspirations of children aged 5 to 14 primarily but not exclusively resident in the Black Country Borough's.. The objectives are achieved through a variety of educational activities (including drama, music, art, dance, sport and adventurous activities), counselling and mentoring interventions, workshops and parenting support. Since January 2016 B2A has expanded its services into the Dudley/Sandwell and Walsall..

An extensive range of activities are now run by B2A including the following:-

- Healthy living workshops
- Summer holiday activity camps
- Lunchtime/afterschool activities
- Arts psychotherapy
- Counselling/therapy services
- Peer mentoring delivering the Heads-up and Heroes programmes
- E-safety/Gangs workshops
- Anti-bullying workshops
- Mid-Day Supervisor training
- Parenting workshops
- Mentoring/Behaviour work
- Family therapy/work

The number of children and family involvement totals contacts using B2A services in the last 12 months.

General Update

A successful year has seen B2A develop its service offer into the Borough's Sandwell/Walsall via Police Violence Reduction Unit funding. Counselling/mentoring work has grown by 63% in the last year across the Black Country with 7062 counselling sessions delivered. Government HAF funding has allowed B2A to offer activity programmes in two local Dudley Primary schools throughout the year with 5760 children attending. The charity has continued to support local families via our Big Lottery funded Family therapy work in the Dudley area with 278 family therapy sessions delivered. Peer support/resilience and behaviour programmes have proved very popular across the Black Country. Major partnerships have been formed with schools across Wolverhampton/Dudley.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The Charity has developed a policy whereby unrestricted reserves should be equivalent to three months running costs. This is to enable legal obligations to be met should we experience a funding shortage, at the year end the free reserves available to the Charity were £109,489.

The Trustees will develop a robust monitoring/evaluation framework and approach; including an exit strategy for the contingency that sufficient resources to sustain the planned activities are not forthcoming.

Financial review

Income this year has increased to £238,109 from £188,336. Overall unrestricted income has increased during the year by £47,643 with funds from Big Lottery totalling £52,180. Expenditure of £218,753 (2022: £169,815) has resulted in a surplus of £19,356 (2021: £18,521).

FUTURE PLANS

B2A will continue to deliver high quality counselling, mentoring and creative activities across the city of Wolverhampton and in the neighbouring boroughs of Dudley/Walsall and Sandwell.

Holiday activities and after-school clubs can be delivered in any area if funded by schools or by grants obtained from specific charitable trusts which could lead to more targeted work via the HAF programme.

B2A is also continuing to develop and deliver the Heads-up and Heros Peer Support Programmes within primary schools in across the Black Country.

B2A has continued to deliver a wide range of online e-safety courses to children, parents and teachers.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Constitution

The Charity is registered as a charitable company limited by guarantee and is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The objects of the Charity as set out in the memorandum of association are to advance the education of children, for the public benefit, primarily amongst those aged between 7 and 11 resident in the West Midlands with a particular reference to the Borough of Wolverhampton through play, drama, music, art, dance, sport and outdoor pursuits so that their personal development may be enhanced.

Method of appointment or election of Trustees

The Articles of Association state that until otherwise determined by members in general meeting the number of Board members shall not be less than 6 nor more than 12.

At any one time the Board members shall comprise:

- as an ex-officio member, the Mayor for the time being of Wolverhampton
- those directors elected by the member of the company
- those directors co-opted to the board.

All directors, other than the ex-officio member, must be members of the charity. Any directors co-opted to the board may only hold office until the next annual general meeting but are eligible for re-election.

The board may appoint relevant persons to attend and participate in any meeting without power to vote.

Junior members (persons between the ages of 12 and 17 inclusive who are interested in the furtherance of the objects of the charity) may elect two Junior members to attend meetings of the Board when invited to do so by the Board. Junior members do not have a power to vote and not counted for the purposes of a quorum.

New Board members are inducted through an informal meeting with representatives of the Board and charity management.

Organisational structure and decision making

The Charity is governed by the Board of Trustees and meeting regularly throughout the year. The day to day running of the Charity and management of the staff is delegated to the Project Manager who reports directly to the Board and attends Board meetings.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF BELIEVE TO ACHIEVE

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Believe to Achieve ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31st March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2023

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The charitable company has taken advantage of the following disclosure exemptions in preparing these financial statements, as permitted by FRS 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland':

- the requirements of Section 7 Statement of Cash Flows.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Computer equipment - 25% on cost

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
