STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES, ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Object of the Charity and Public Benefit Statement:

The objects for which Holloway Hall Community Association is established are to:

- To foster a good fellowship and good citizenship among all residents on the Ley Hill estate
- To provide for members, facilities for physical and mental training and recreation and social moral and intellectual development to promote the happiness and well-being of all children resident on the estate and foster a community spirit for the achievement of these and other charitable purposes
- To maintain and manage the room within the hall for activities promoted by members in furtherance of all of the above objects.

The trustees have referred to the guidance from the charities commission on 'Charities and Public Benefit'. The trustees are confident that Holloway Hall's aims and objects outlined above are in accordance with the regulations on public benefit. The detail of activities that support these aims and objectives is provided in the next section of the report.

Review of Activities Achievements and Performance

The key activities delivered during the year included:

It's been another busy yet successful year for the hall, the staff, and the trustees.

HHCA are a registered Charity run by trustees and under UK Law we have to operate the hall as a separate "Ltd company under guarantee"

The aim of the Charity in summary:

To provide through the hall and its employees a resource and service to the all members of the local community, voluntary groups, and other organisations. To and maintain the hall to a high standard and the car park as well.

The Hall Committee meets 6 times in the year and had 2 of those meetings in the daytime. This gives all hall users the opportunity to come along and put their ideas, comments or complaints to the committee. All repeat hirers are encouraged to the meetings and it is in hirers best interest to attend and influence the committee decisions.

The purpose of the trustees is to manage the hall in such a manner that it is financially solvent, and holds reserves as required by the charity commission. To provide through the hall and its employees a proactive resource and service to the local community, voluntary, and other organisations.

Financially the hall is self-sustaining and has appropriate reserves.

a) BCC

We have experienced issues in 2015 with late dowry payments from BCC. To some extent that is to be expected given all the management change that is going on, however it is not a position the trustees want to see repeated.

BCC ceased providing us with trades and support services in 2014 at our request, and we use local trades where appropriate. This has led to a better locally based service, more flexibility, quicker response times, and a much better value with no loss in quality in fact quite the reverse.

b) Repairs and Maintenance

Gas and Electric alone cost us about £11,000 in 2015 in fuel. So as you would expect just like in the home we always take the chance to knock down the thermostats when appropriate. We don't want the hall to be cold but neither can we afford to waste heat so we ask all users to be considerate of the utility bill it is a big factor in keeping hire costs down.

As the hall ages we will expect Repairs & Maintenance to increase but 2015 was a good year for R and M costs.

c) Hire Charges and Commercial Hirers

We had to put up charges in 2015 to cover our increased costs e.g. to heat and light the hall, insurance cover, fire extinguishers, burglar alarm, Legionella testing, cleaning costs, repairs etc. but we are trying to keep charges down for regular hall users and especially for local community groups.

Bookings continue to increase both at weekends and during the week to our highest levels of usage.

Indoor Bowls for local people will start for 3 days (afternoons) a week in September 2015.

Chrysalis Dance Group for children/ young adults is still using the hall as are Cheer Leaders for young adults.

Tai Chi for all ages

Weight Watchers for all ages

Zumba for all ages

d) Community Hosting and Events:

May the 4th saw the second and even more successful Free Party on the Green where we gave our time, expertise, the hall and resources to the occasion. It was free for everyone and many local groups had a chance to put on a show. A good time was had by all attendees.

The Place of Welcome meets every Monday morning, free tea and biscuits! It is open to all comers who can feel free to drop in and chat.

We also hosted Police PACT meetings. Ward meetings. Local Election Voting.

TCV are using the hall to help promote with us the community allotment on the old doctors' surgery site. We do hope to see an increase in community activity at the allotment site this year.

Friends of Ley Hill Park (a local group) meet at the hall on a Saturday morning every 6 weeks. Anyone is welcome to go along to their meetings. (Dates are on their web site).

Northfield Constituency Environmental Forum met once at the hall.

Baby Sign and Language Group has continued in 2015.

Despite us having the IT technology on site no one wants to use it so we have agreed to turn the room into a storage area.

Let's Get Moving a doctor's referral groups.

The Community Choir who are always looking for new singers.

Active parks have 3 groups running in the park but co-ordinates through Kerry – and during the winter running began.

Over the 2015 winter as part of Be-Active the hall hosted weekly Free fit Pilates and Buggy Fit Mums. Open to anyone who wants to attend.

Foster Carers respite group meet once a month.

Faith Groups, like St Bartholomew Church and Reverend Sammy are a key part of hall life.

The longest serving local community groups are the Friendship Club and The Bingo Club.

e) Promotional Activity.

The website does a good job at promoting the hall.

Once again as chairman of Trustees I have the happy task of thanking Kerry on yet another successful year as hall manager.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

After four and half years Holloway Hall trustees finally signed the lease agreement in September 2014. The trustees will still be able to claim a dowry payment from Birmingham City Council for a few more years to help support the running costs of the hall.

Birmingham City Council will no longer provide us with trades and support services; we now have to find our own suppliers.

Changes within Birmingham City Council district support team have not have made changes easy they have been complex and time consuming.

So now we have full responsibility to carry out:

- Statutory checks
- Repairs and maintenance
- Payments of invoices/bills

Reserves Policy

Reserves Policy has been produced.

Holloway Hall Community Association aims to have reserves in the band 10% to 20% of current expenditure. The reserves are currently higher than this at £64k.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

We plan to continue to provide facilities to the local communities in the coming year and to develop our income generation to ensure the sustainability of the Hall.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF HOLLOWAY HALL COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st December 2015 set out on pages three to fourteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purpose of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as a trustee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

Have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF HOLLOWAY HALL COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st December 2015 set out on pages three to fourteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purpose of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as a trustee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

Have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
