THE FAITH-KEYWAY TRUST

---

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2016. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (the FRSSE) (effective 1 January 2015).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The Faith-Keyway Trust seeks to promote Christianity through the publication and distribution of reading, audio and video material and by organising retreats and conferences.

Public benefit

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit, and paid due regard to it in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

The trustees are satisfied that the ongoing activities which they are involved in means that the charity is continuing to meet the public benefit requirement.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Faith Keyway Trust is a movement within the Roman Catholic Church which draws together priests, religious and lay Catholics in a shared vision of Jesus Christ as master key to the meaning of the universe. The Faith Keyway Trust seeks to show the compatibility of the truths of science and the truths of the Catholic faith as proclaimed by the magisterium of the Church. We seek to show the transcendent existence of God the Creator and the essential distinction of matter and spirit. We offer a vision of God as the true personal Environment of every human person. We show how this has unfolded in the communication of God's Word and grace through the revelation of the Old Covenant with Israel and reaching a climax and fulfilment in the coming of Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of Man, Lord of creation and 'Heir of the ages'. Thus linking creation, Incarnation, salvation, Church, sacraments and eschatology in one coherent theology, we seek to present a dynamic and attractive vision of the Catholic faith.

We present this vision in a number of ways. We now organise three conferences ('Summertimes') every summer for young people aged 10-15 years, one in the south at Woldingham School in Surrey, one at Alton Castle, Staffordshire attended by young people from Scotland and one at Ampleforth College in North Yorkshire attended by young people from the north of England. The attendance at these two events fluctuates slightly. Last year they attracted about 130 young people.

The Faith Summer Session and Faith Winter Session are for an older age group, 15 to 35 years. Both these events attract around two hundred people each. The Summer Session is held at Woldingham School, the Winter Session at Stonyhurst College in Lancashire.

There are also day workshops ('Youth Days') for young people of secondary school age normally once a term in various locations across the country. They are organised by individual clergy in their parishes and cost nothing to the movement. The 'Faith Forums' similarly operate on an ad hoc basis. There are currently three in the UK - in London, Hull-Scarborough and Glasgow. The meetings are advertised and open to anyone. They usually consist of a presentation on some aspect of the Catholic faith followed by an informal discussion. We are currently looking at ways of organising events for the older age range, particularly families. A 'Faith Family Day' takes place several times during the year at Shaftesbury in Dorset.

We publish a bi-monthly magazine, the 'Faith Magazine'. It has a circulation of about 700. Although the flagship of our publications, cost of production always outweighs the return. We are always looking at strategies for increasing revenues from advertising and increasing sales through marketing in English-speaking countries overseas. There is always a small increase in subscriptions following a period of advertising. At our Summer meeting of the Faith Trustees in August 2015 we took the decision to increase the grant of an annual subsidy to £8000 to fund the development of Faith Magazine. We have also launched a new website which went live in June 2014.

We also publish individual pamphlets. The store of back issues of the magazine and pamphlets is at the premises of the Sisters of the Gospel of Life in Glasgow. There is now no cost incurred for storage.

We continue to make audio recordings of all the presentations at the Summer and Winter Sessions. Copies of these are available for purchase either on site or through the magazine.

During the financial year 2015 - 2016 the main income and expenditure has been on the residential conferences, the magazine and the new website. We have conducted fundraising to meet these costs and have raised several thousand pounds in individual donations. The membership of the Faith Movement is now established and there has been a helpful increase of income through Membership subscriptions and donations.

Many people involved in the work of the Faith Keyway Trust support our activities through their own funding. We have sought to address the deficits incurred on the running of our conferences by increasing the conference fees and seeking donations for young people in financial hardship. Last year however we incurred a deficit in the running of the Summer and Winter Conferences.

The year 2015-2016 has been a period of steady consolidation. The numbers attending our conferences have remained stable. The circulation of the Magazine, while always a cause for concern, has not shown any dramatic fall.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The Faith Keyway Trust has two accounts.

The No 1 account is for the general working purposes of the Trust such as income and expenditure for the Summer and Winter Sessions and the North and South and Scottish Summertimes.

The Magazine account is for the running of the Faith Magazine. It receives income from subscriptions and advertising and pays for the printing and distribution.

The Trustees seek to maintain sufficient reserves to ensure the smooth ongoing day to day operations of the charity. We aim to ensure that every activity covers its own costs and where this is not the case we seek to introduce measures to increase revenue.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF

---

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2016 set out on pages six to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRSSE) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (the FRSSE) (effective 1 January 2015)', the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015) and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Computer equipment	- 25% on reducing balance

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
