Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. [The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [named body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

Independent In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) to indicate that:

- · accounting records have not been kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006:
- · the accounts do not accord with such records:
- · where accounts are prepared on an accruals basis, whether they fail to comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006, or are not consistent with the Charities SORP
- · any matter which the examiner believes should be drawn to the attention of the reader to gain a proper understanding of the accounts.
- * Please delete the words in the brackets if they do not apply.

Lincoln Cat Care

CC reg no 1114359

Trustees Report to the Charity Commission - Year ending December 2016

The Trustees of Lincoln Cat Care are satisfied that this Charity has continued to fulfil its aim , 'to promote and facilitate humane behaviour towards cats' to the best of its ability.

We have continued to support cats and their owners , where possible , financially and /or practically 1227 procedures were directly sponsored during the year , including 402 cat sterilizations .As usual our members , all unpaid volunteers , have continued to make Lincoln Cat Care an excellent and cost effective way of supporting cat welfare in this area .

Our main concern is , as always , the excessive number of kittens which are born each year - increasing the cat population beyond the public requirement . Only education of owners who permit unwanted litters to be born can achieve acceptable population control . Like all cat charities, we find this task frustratingly difficult though of course ,we will continue.
