Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit

The centre, run and managed by the association, continues to be well used by a wide variety of different groups in the area for a variety of activities: sport, leisure, social interaction, worship, cultural events, education and learning, community and public consultation meetings, welfare rights advice.

Sneinton Hermitage Community Association

The variety of activities above benefit the local community and individuals in a manner of ways:

- Build confidence;
- Strengthen mental health & wellbeing;
- Empower the local residents;
- Build social cohesion, cultural and community networks;
- Use and strengthen existing skills, teach new skills;

Summary of the main achievements during the period

The centre is open seven days a week. There are nine groups who have weekly bookings with us on an on-going basis throughout the week. These are: Sneinton Out of School and Holiday Club, two Martial Arts groups who use the centre 7 days a week; Noor Neighbourhood Project (2 lunchtimes a week); WEA sewing classes once a week; two church groups who have regular services and prayer meetings, and a Bangla school for children and teenagers (weekly). Welfare rights advice sessions run twice a week. Further to these regular bookings we have frequent bookings for family parties, local community organisation meetings and events, as well as for room hire for pilot schemes such as Zumba, cookery and social care training.

Financial review

The association's financial position is as expected.

The charity's policy on reserves

We aim to have 6 months' reserves as per Charity Commission guidance, to meet any contingencies which may occur. Our policy on reserves is reviewed annually.

Financial risks

Loss of income from room hire due to user groups cancelling sessions. Cuts to, or loss of, Local Authority funding.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Sneinton Hermitage Community Association for the year ended 31 March 2017

I report on the accounts of the charity, which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Acthave not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
