Structure and Organisation

Organisation

The organisation is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) registered as a charity on 2nd September 2016. The Charity is managed by the trustees who meet regularly to consider the progress of the Charity and to consider its future direction and activities.

Trustee Appointments

The Charity is governed by trustees who, apart from the first charity trustees, are appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. In accordance with the constitutions:

- (a) There should be not less than four nor more than nine charity trustees; of whom one may be an ex-officio trustee; and not less than three must be nominated trustees.
- (b) If the number of charity trustees falls below four the remaining charity trustee or charity trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.
- (c) The maximum number of charity trustees that can be appointed is as provided in sub-clause (a) of this clause. No trustee appointment may be made in excess of these provisions.

The Free Church Federal Council is the nominating and employing body for the nominated trustees and the ex-officio trustee. In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

All trustees are inducted into the policies and procedures of the charity to ensure they are well equipped to fulfil their duties and in particular receive copies of:

The Constitution of the CIO

The latest Trustees Annual Report and Statement of Accounts of the Charity

And are encouraged to read Charity Commission guidance notes CC3 –“The Essential Trustee – What you need to know”.

In addition the trustees are encouraged to read Charity Commission and other appropriate newsletters and are aware of the need to attend courses designed to keep them abreast of their duties and responsibilities.

Risk Management

The Trustees are aware of the recommendations to examine the major strategic, business and operational risks which the Charity faces. Procedures are in place to manage the risks identified to the best of the Charity's ability.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable Objects

The objects of the Charity are to promote the rehabilitation of ex-offenders for the public benefit by working with people from a range of faith communities in the United Kingdom to develop and maintain an infrastructure which supports those leaving prison so that such people are integrated into society to lead law-abiding lives, in particular by:

- 1. providing a national directory as a resource for ex-offenders and prison chaplains that lists communities from a range of faith backgrounds which have identified themselves as being welcoming and supportive of people leaving prison;
- 2. providing opportunities for members of faith communities to engage in educational activities that will equip them to understand and respond appropriately to the needs of people leaving prison and their integration into society after release.

Public Benefit

The trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit reporting in deciding what activities the charity should undertake. The remainder of this report illustrates the activities undertaken to support the public benefit requirement.

Achievements and Performance

Review of the Period

The Welcome Directory has a simple yet powerful mission: to help faith communities become places where people who leave prison find acceptance. A place to belong that not only nurtures faith but also offers appropriate practical support. In these first six months operationg as a registered charity I believe that we have made significant steps in moving forwards on this missional journey.

History

Every year many thousands of offenders who benefit from the professional and supportive services of prison chaplains leave our establishments never to be seen by their faith communities beyond the prison gates.

At a Prisons Week lecture in November 2011, Crispin Blunt MP, the incumbent Prisons Minister mentioned a project in Singapore established to enable employers to welcome offenders into the work place following release. This lecture inspired the NOMS Free Churches Faith Advisor, Revd Bob Wilson to gather together national leaders from prison chaplaincy, the voluntary sector, academia and many faith groups to explore what a project like this could look like if it were applied to communities across faith boundaries. It was hoped that a response from faith communities would bring better social cohesion, change attitudes to offenders and release a resource of care and welcome to people leaving prison that it has been shown could reduce reoffending.

Prior to establishment of The Welcome Directory, the Free Churches Group helped to secure a really solid base for the work, helping us to understand what it would take to help faith communities become better at helping people leaving prison and how they could identify themselves safely. They also helped in establishing some core training materials which we have used in 4 prisons, delivering at least 6 x3 session Prison Awareness courses to date.

Development Work

Our current development officer is still committed to 3 days per week, and has been central to establishing the profile and presence of The Welcome Directory in these first six months. Having met together as trustees with stakeholders and representatives of the Inst of Criminology (Cambridge) in November 16, we have now established a set of documents which outline our vision, and values, enabling us to move forward towards developing a sustainable and coherent development plan into the future.

We are now seeking to grow our team so that we have staff to oversee the relationships required with a network of volunteers, prison chaplaincies, and faith communities. With more funding possibilities in the pipeline, we hope in 2017-18 to develop our staff team, and hence impact significantly.

Today

The Welcome Directory is now actively seeking to develop a database of faith communities who

- Are willing to identify themselves as being welcoming to people leaving prison
- Are safe spaces, with active safeguarding policies and structures in place
- Have at least two named champions to lead the way in welcoming people from prison into their community
- Have either a working relationship with a prison or who have completed our prison awareness course

Today (continued)

These communities will be the heart of this movement; these people will be at the very heart of this work. The Welcome Directory will be made up of people who have found the benefits of being part of a faith community whether inside or outside the prison gates, brought together so that all benefit. The results we believe will be safer, more cohesive and better functioning communities. Communities who value and support people to live better lives today, whatever damage the mistakes of yesterday may have caused.

Financial Review

At 31st March 2017 the charity had funds totalling £1,443 all of which is unrestricted funds. £6,075 has been raised during the year and £4,632 has been expended as detailed in the notes to the accounts.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the Trustees to retain sufficient reserves to support the costs of running the charity for a six-month period, which is approximately £2,300. In the longer term, the Trustees aim to build up sufficient reserves to develop the charity and to cover gaps in funding. At 31st March 2016 there were unrestricted undesignated reserves of £1,443.

Principal Funding Source

The principal funding source is from grant income.

Investment Policy

The Trustees consider that there are no funds available for long term investment.

Plans for the Future

As previously explained the Trustees are seeking to develop the database of faith communities and to broaden the range of communities involved. The Trustees are also seeking to expand the Trustee Board with people who have the necessary skills to drive the charity forward and also to broaden the base of the communities from which they are drawn.

Responsibilities of the Trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period, which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are prudent and reasonable;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
