Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees

Of the

Stafford District Scout Council

I report on the accounts of the District for the year ended 31st December 2016 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and related notes set out.

This report is made solely to the trustees in accordance with Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent Examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees for my examination work.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The District's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. They consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts (under Section 145 of the Charities Act)
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act) and
- · To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the District and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out on the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities;

have not been met.

The Association use in poverty to benefit from Scouting; while the Association subscription to its Members, the benefits of Scouting are not do by the member's inability to pay. Locally, there are ents to waive subscriptions and other costs for those who ard to pay. Nationally, there are funds available for uniform ites so that young people are not excluded from activities if nable to pay. Any private benefits of Scouting are incidental. its of Scouting are further demonstrated throughout this report.

We have completed our review of the major risks to the charity and have annual renewal procedures in place to manage these risks. We are not dependent on any particular donors.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing documents

Our Purpose:

Scouting in Stafford exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

Our Values:

As Scouts we are guided by these values: Integrity - We act with integrity; we are honest, trustworthy and loyal. Respect - We have self-respect and respect for others. Care - We support others and take care of the world in which we live. Belief - We explore our faiths, beliefs and attitudes. Co-operation - We make a positive difference; we co-operate with others and make friends.

The Scout Method

Scouting takes place when young people, in partnership with adults, work together based on the values of Scouting and:

- · enjoy what they are doing and have fun
- · take part in activities indoors and outdoors
- · learn by doing
- · share in spiritual reflection
- · take responsibility and make choices
- · undertake new and challenging activities
- · make and live by their Promise.

Summary of the Main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects

In planning our activities for the year we kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our District Executive meetings.

The focus of our activities remains a programme of youth oriented activities and Queen's Scout Awards and the Duke of Edinburgh Awards scheme. This benefits our young people by developing their self-confidence and social skills alongside practical IT skills and life skills as envisaged in our national Vision 2018. We welcome all young people regardless of personal background, faith, gender or personal circumstances.

Additional details of objectives and activities

volunteers

Contribution made by A great contribution is made by our adult volunteers. We are grateful for the many hours our volunteers have spent listening to and encouraging our young people and working with them. Without this valuable contribution of time, energy and expertise we would not have been able to achieve so much.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main Achievements of the charity during the Year.

St George's Day Parade and service were once again very well attended. The Carol Service was also well attended and is proving to be a very popular event with all sections.

Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Explorer Scouts are all experiencing a rise in numbers and almost all sections at all groups are full, We ran a recruitment workshop with the Regional Service Team in order to teach leaders the best ways to recruit additional leaders to their groups and sections. Some of them have taken the information and put in place some of the strategies and are already seeing results. The Appointments Committee are up to date with the leaders requiring to come before the District Appointments Advisory Committee. We celebrated the 100yrs of Cub Scouts starting with the cinema trip to see the Jungle Book, a fabulous day at Sherratts Wood travelling back in time with The Doctor and culminating with the Promise Party which was held at Weston Road High School with nearly every Cub in Stafford District attending.
