Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Trust Deed of 14 th March 1961 as extended and varied by the Deed of Variation which took effect from 1 st April 2008.
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The Trustee body is made up of one Consultant Pathologist nominated from each of the six Pathology Department sub-specialties, the Chair of the Trustees (normally, but not always, the most senior Consultant Pathologist) and two survivors of Mr Francis Edwin Showering, CBE.
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The appointment of new Trustees only occurs on the departure of one of the Pathology Heads of Specialty when the newly appointed Head will be invited to become a Trustee.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are the promotion and development of medical research to be carried out by the Department of Pathology of the North Bristol NHS Trust (NBT).

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trustees confirm that as required by the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, they 'have due regard' to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any relevant power or duty. The guidance is taken into account when reviewing the Trust's aims and objectives and in planning future activities and approving grants.

Using income derived from investments, the Trustees make grants to researchers employed within NBT to undertake worthwhile pathology research projects with a view to benefiting patients.

The charity seeks to heighten the profile of the Department of Pathology, and also to educate and inform its staff, by organising an annual lecture by a guest speaker on a current pathology research theme. Details of the 2016 lecture are as follows:

'Ebola – lessons from the Frontline'
Speaker: Surg Cdr Stuart Dickson

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

All trustees gave their time to the Charity voluntarily and received no honorarium, emoluments, expenses or other benefits.

Funding is allocated to projects by the Application Sub-committee following internal peer review (and external review in certain cases, especially for grants over £10,000), and where appropriate approval by a Research Ethics Committee. All projects supported by the Charity must meet the strategic Research and Development objectives of the North Bristol NHS Trust.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

GRANTS AWARDED IN 2016/17

Project SF 117: Pre-Clinical Pharmacodynamics of co-trimoxazole (trimethoprim-sulphamethoxazole) Melissa Baxter, Microbiology, £9,345.77

Project SF 118: The clinical utility of exome sequencing approaches and the functional evaluation of possible pathogenic variants - Maggie Williams, Genetics, £16,173.85

There were no projects completed in 2016/17.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Following the approval of the previous year's accounts, 2016/17, within the current financial year, 2017/18, and the subsequent approval of new grants, it is estimated that an uncommitted reserve of up to £10,000 will be available to carry forwards to the following financial year, 2018/19. This sum will supplement the planned surplus that will be generated in the current financial year and is also carried forwards into the following financial year. This policy provides the flexibility to approve the more resource intensive research projects.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

All of the funds available to the Charity originate from the endowment of £50,000 received from the Showering family in 1961. This sum, which has since appreciated, is held in trust and has to be invested unless otherwise used in accordance with the Trust Deed. The trustees must use the income to meet the objects of the Charity. The income received by the Investment Advisor is transferred to the Charity's Lloyd's current account on a monthly basis. This account is used to fund project costs on an ongoing basis. Funds in the current account which are not required in the short term are transferred to an income earning COIF deposit account. The objective, whenever possible, is to restrict the maximum sum held in the current account to less than £20,000 so as to maximise the interest earned on the income received by the Charity. When necessary funds are transferred back from the COIF account to the current account to fund current project expenditure.

Within 2016/17 dividends and interest of £29,862 were received. There were payments of £10,894 made up of grants £7865, lecture costs of £411 and £2,618 on administration and accountancy.

The investments are managed on a discretionary basis for balanced growth with moderate risk. An ethical policy places restrictions on investing in tobacco, firearms and defence. Investment management fees of £7,329 were incurred by the Endowment Fund.
