Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Committee, and wider membership, identified that further administration and management support was required so development worker role was reviewed and recruited a full time post via a partnership with the charity student minds.

There are now 210 memberships of which 60 were new members.

Being a member has the following benefits:

Forum and meeting discussions, peer support, representation on valuable working groups, promotion of role, UMHAN wiki, self-help webpages, documents on website. Continued professional development opportunities including guest speakers at meetings. Regional membership groups have been launched, coordinators found for all but 4.

Journal launched and awaiting entries.

Maintaining and growing communications, social media, blog, website, and newsletter.

students with disabilities. Reports have been produced and are on ECU website.

University Mental Health and Wellbeing Day

- University Mental Health Day was our biggest yet, with 81 universities running events and a social media reach of over 17 million. Entered in the RSPH awards.
 - Sent Campaign packs to 100 universities and additional universities were sent digital download packs.
 - Collaborate with Student Minds in thunderclap campaign Word on the Curb to produce a video asking students and staff why they are active for their mental health.

Disabled Student Allowance (DSA)

In response to changes within disabled student allowance and government policy; UMHAN was active in representing the needs of students with mental health disabilities.

DSA QAF recognised that UMHAN membership would be a professional registration that would be accepted as suitable to provide mental health mentoring.

In order to ensure quality a partnership was created with a university in order to deliver a training package. After successful competition of this training mentors are entitled to apply for a new type of mentor membership.
