Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To relieve present suffering & distress in animals that have been abandoned, neglected or are unwanted. To seek good, responsible, caring homes for such animals. To educate on all aspects of animal care.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity commission guidance on public benefit is foremost in all our activities. Our main aim is to give care & shelter to animals in need. To provide a service to the public by taking in unwanted pets.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

Trustees may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

We offer placements to students from local animal colleges. We offer hands on, supervised experience in a structured way. Our thanks go to our many, many helpers without whom we would not be able to carry out our valuable work.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We again continue to care for and rehome many animals. We have most of our animals checked by our vet and have major or urgent ailments treated immediately having set up a fund for vet treatments. Again the post office and Midland Co-operative have helped us with fund raising. We have been able to purchase a van for use by the charity. The driveway has been repainted as funds allow.
