I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 March 2017, which are set out on page 1.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners in section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in a full audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 the 2011 Act, or to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Structure, Governance and Management

Lovewise was founded in September 2002 and received charitable status in February 2003. Its aim is to provide Christian teaching on marriage, sex and relationships to young people in schools and youth groups and to support parents with resources, including books, to help them engage with and teach their children about these matters. Lovewise has three trustees: Drs Chris Richards (Hospital Paediatrician) and Liz Jones (Retired Community Paediatrician) and Mr James Cockburn (Retired Principal of Longbenton Community College, North Tyneside). This report describes its fifteenth full year of activity. Final decisions regarding the structure and running of the charity are taken by the trustees.

Objectives and Activities

Lovewise provides Christian teaching on marriage, sex and relationships to young people in schools and youth groups and supports parents in teaching their own children. The charity's office is based in Newcastle upon Tyne where it employs a part-time administrator and a part-time graphic designer. Lovewise programmes of teaching have been prepared and are offered in secondary and primary schools either by Lovewise staff or volunteers or by teachers. Lovewise also accepts invitations to give this teaching to youth groups and to speak to groups of parents in churches or at conferences as invited. Lovewise resources are sold to teachers, parents and youth group leaders as requested via our main office. Lovewise books have also been translated and published in German.

Achievements and Performance

During our fifteenth year approximately 125 Lovewise presentations were given nationwide by our presenters. In addition, many Lovewise presentations have been given by individual teachers and leaders in their own schools and youth groups. A large number books have been purchased by parents, and some by young people. We have promoted our materials at the Word Alive conference in North Wales, the Christian Resources Exhibition in London and at the Evangelical Ministry Association in London.

We have continued to update our database and to receive and respond to calls and e-mails from parents particularly regarding school sex education.

This year we have been working on a new Bible study for church youth groups called the "True Love Interactive Bible Study". We have also re-advertised two of our previously written school presentations called "Pornography – Dangers and Decisions" and "MARRIAGE".

Annual Conference

Lovewise held its annual conference and strategy day on Saturday 25th March, 2017 in London. It was attended by twenty eight supporters from around the country.

The sale of presentations

Most of the presentations that we produce may be purchased. These cost from £3.99 to £35.00.

Presentations given by Lovewise staff or volunteers.

Three part-time presenters, working 6, 4 and 4 hours for Lovewise and other volunteer presenters (all of whom have been interviewed, referenced and DBS checked) have given Lovewise presentations in different parts of the country throughout the year.
