Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The European Academy Great Britain
Limited by Guarantee

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 April 2017 set out on pages three to seven.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The charitable company is entitled to exemption from audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 for the year ended 30 April 2017.

The members have not required the charitable company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the year ended 30 April 2017 in accordance with Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for

- ensuring that the charitable company keeps accounting records that comply with Sections 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006 and
- preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company as at the end of each financial year and of its surplus or deficit for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the charitable company.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

History, objectives and activities of EAGB

The European Academy Great Britain was established on 17 February 1981 as an educational charity to increase knowledge of educational subjects of European interest. The Committee currently focuses on young people between 13 -19 years of age. The EAGB collaborates with a wide range of schools and works closely with their teachers in developing educational courses.

Management and governance arrangements

The memorandum and articles provide for a minimum of 3 members of the committee. Were there a requirement for new members of the committee, these would be identified and appointed by the remaining members of the committee. New members of the committee are briefed on their responsibilities, the governing document, administrative procedures, the history and philosophical approach of the charity. A new member of the committee would receive copies of the previous year's report and accounts and a copy of the Charity Commission leaflet "The Essential Trustee: What You Need to Know".

The committee annually review the risks that the charity faces. To date these have included minor areas of risk relating to employing staff which have been covered by proper procedures and insurance. It has also considered risks relating to terrorism which could cause cancellations and aims to systematically build up a reserve of three years operating income to cover fluctuations in student registrations.

Achievements and performance

The European Academy Great Britain continued its educational commitment by providing educational programmes for 186 students (as compared with 57 in 2016) and 18 teachers (compared with 7 in 2016). The increase in numbers of students is due to the participation of new schools. Our new Finnish school will be participating for the fourth time. In addition we had a new school from Sweden, which will be participating again in 2017 and 2018, this time increasing their numbers of students from one class of 30 to three classes of 30. We also successfully met our objective of working with schools in the Netherlands, and had our first international school from Arnhem, who in the future plan to add this programme to their curriculum.

In addition to this, two Norwegian schools, which could not participate last year due to their government cut backs on funding, managed to attend with indirect funding from the students themselves to the school) and shorter trips. This strategy secured the reintroduction of the schools' annual attendance. We also welcomed a new Norwegian school and are delighted to confirm that this school has also now become a participant, with their second trip planned for September 2017.

Nydalen Vgs Skole, Nydalen, Norway

(25 - 29.09.16)

This new school, comprised 30 students and 2 teachers. They participated on a four-day programme. Activities included Shakespeare's Globe for a workshop (focusing on Hamlet) and a visit to a homeless centre for volunteering work, a guided tour of the Tate Modern on the South Bank, as well as a multicultural visit to the Gurdwara Sikh temple in Southall. Their final evening was a theatre performance at The Playhouse, to experience George Orwell's 1984, a work being studied in their school English curriculum.

Tibble Gymnasium, Tibble, Sweden

This Swedish School attended with 30 students and 2 teachers. The aim of their programme was to enhance their language skills and economics studies. Their four day programme commenced with a Preparation session. They spent a morning at Shakespeare's Globe for a workshop (Hamlet), tour and then exhibition visit, followed by a guided tour of the Tate Modern. They also had a business presentation at Handelsbank (parent organisation of the school), followed by a tour, presentation and Q&A session at Westfield London. Here they learnt about the various aspects of retailing, including marketing, services and operations. One of the highlights of the trip was a full day visit to Sky Studios, where they attended a Careers day, giving students an insight into the many facets of working for a major media group, from marketing, business, operations and news & sport production.

Suomalaisen Yhteiskoulun Saatio, (SYK), Helsinki, Finland

(30.10.16 – 5.11.16)

This Finnish School participated for the third time with 18 students and 2 teachers. Assignments included Acton Homeless Concern, an organised workshop on Drugs and Alcohol Awareness and a guided visit of the Gurdwara Sikh Temple. They also had a guided tour of the Tate Modern following a River Thames walk to explore the South Bank area, including Westminster and the Houses of Parliament. The group also went to The Natural History Museum, Science Museum and V & A Museum. A new highlight was a morning session at Sky Studios where they spent three hours producing first hand a news report. The students wrote, produced, enacted and filmed themselves reporting on a topic of their choice, cyber-bullying. In addition, they went to the Prince of Wales Theatre.

Lillestrom Vgs Skole, Oslo, Norway

(22 – 26.01.17)

Lillestrom returned with 20 students and 2 teachers. Their programme included two theatre visits – one to see This House at the Garrick Theatre and the other to see Much Ado About Nothing at the Theatre Royal. Assignments included a workshop at Shakespeare's Globe (Hamlet and sonnets), Tate Modern, a Britain in the 1960s Exhibition visit at the V& A Museum, the Museum of London and the National Portrait Gallery and a guided tour of the Gurdwara Sikh temple. In addition, social issues were explored during a visit to the Acton Homeless Concern, and in view of the current political climate, they attended an organised Brexit talk at University College London. One of the highlights of their trip was a guided tour of Houses of Parliament, followed by a brief Q & A session with Dr Rupa Huq, Member of Parliament for Ealing Central and Acton.

Ski Vgs Skole, Ski, Norway

(5 – 10.03.17)

This school returned with 40 students and 4 teachers. Ski School followed 3 separate study programmes, one for students interested in Education in the UK, one for those interested in Sport and the Community; and the third in Crime and Justice. Education activities included assignments Harrow School and two high schools, one state-funded and one private; sports activities included visits, tours and Q & A sessions at two stadiums - one at Wembley, and one at a local community based club, Brentford FC. They also visited Sky Studios for a Sky Sports Tour and Q & A. Visits for the Crime and Justice students included a "live" morning at Isleworth Crown Court and a visit to the Old Bailey, as well as a morning at the Homeless Centre. The whole group visited Shakespeare's Globe, the Gurdwara Sikh temple, the Museum of London, and participated in a tour of the National Theatre backstage. They also saw The London Dungeon and went to a performance at the Apollo theatre.

Jessheim Vgs Skole, Jessheim, Norway

(12 – 17.03.17)

This Norwegian school returned with 28 and 3 teachers. Two special interest groups followed two different programmes, one for those majoring in English and the other History/Social Issues. Visits included a group visit to the production of Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew (a schools-only special afternoon event), a city guided walk, a Houses of Parliament guided tour, a visit to the Gurdwara Sikh Temple in Southall, a morning at the Homeless Centre as well as a V & A Museum visit. Special interest activities included a tour and workshop of Charles Dickens Museum, the National Gallery, the Imperial War Museum and a guided tour of Sky Studios. The group also went to a performance at the Prince of Wales Theatre.

Rivers International, Arnhem, The Netherlands

(15 - 19.04.17)

This Dutch international school followed a four-day programme with 20 students and 3 teachers. Activities included a visit to Shakespeare's Globe (attending a workshop with a focus on Julius Caesar), a backstage tour of the National Theatre, visits to the homeless centre, a guided Victorian walk, a River Thames walk and a visit to the Tate Modern. Students also went to the Science Museum, the Natural History and the Victoria & Albert. On the final evening all were present as "groundlings" and saw the Globe's first performance of Twelfth Night, launching Shakespeare's Summer of Love season.

All schools followed a format of beginning their studies with a preparatory session to help them work out how to carry out the educational projects, and finished with an evaluation session. These included one or two theatre evenings and students stayed with host families in West London.

Public Benefit

Students exchanged experiences with local schools. A social issues programme was organised for the students. They volunteered at a local centre where those who are homeless in the area can find food, warm clothing and a sense of community. The centre estimates that in excess of 1000 individuals access their services on various days of the week. They come from a range of ethnic backgrounds that include Black African and Caribbean, Asian Chinese and White Europeans. The aim was to raise awareness of the need to provide a caring and safe environment for the poor, socially marginalised and those who suffer from isolation or are in any kind of need.

Financial review, investment policy and reserves

The committee have set a policy to ensure that any surplus funds earn maximum interest to maximise the total return with a minimum of risk.

Since the income of the EAGB can fluctuate based on school registrations, the committee plan to build up 3 years of operating income to provide a stable base for its activities and ensure as far as is reasonably practicable staff security.

There was an excess of £10864 of income over expenditure. £8864 was transferred back to the reserve fund which was depleted by a loss of £19645 in the previous year. This is being recovered over three years. The adequacy of the reserves policy is reviewed annually.

Future plans

The committee intend to continue organising the wide range of schools courses it already undertakes.

Statement of Committee Members' responsibilities

Charity law requires the members of the committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the committee members are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The committee members are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner

The committee intend to ask the existing auditors to undertake the independent examination of the charity in the following year.
