Governing Document

The School is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association

Vision

The London School of Supernatural Ministry (LSSM) is a Holy Spirit driven ministry school where students of all ages come to learn how to live in the Kingdom of God and extend its borders through a supernatural lifestyle. Our vision is multigenerational with participants welcomed from all ages over 18. One of our core values is honour, which will manifest through joining the generations and teaching every age group to value and serve one another.

The school emphasises hands on training and experience along with academic understanding. This creates a "learn and apply" culture where students will be encouraged to take risks, stretch their faith and grow on their understanding of God. LSSM believes that each verse of the Bible is an invitation into an experience with the Lord, therefore you will be challenged to live the Bible. We have a learning environment that will feel very much like a laboratory, where you will practice the things you are being taught while instructors coach the process. You will find this all takes place in a setting of passionate worship and intimacy with Him.

As the year progresses and students begin to gain confidence and experience within the safety of the classroom, you will be sent on daily outreaches into the community. These outreaches will include ministry on the streets of London, visiting hospitals, businesses, Parliament, Embassies etc. to demonstrate God's love and power. When you take your supernatural training into the community, we will see Jesus impact people's lives for good!

Management

The former Trustee Andrew Chapman became CEO as from 1st September 2016, Head of School is Lauren Crook. John Griffiths (Trustee and Company Secretary) provides some input on business matters. New trustees: David Cokayne, Rachel Cokayne, Ben Atkins and Alex Atkins have been appointed during 2017.

Operation of the school is facilitated by a number of volunteers who run the First Year and Second Year "Full Time" School; the Evening School and other short term courses such as the "Firestarters" The school uses teaching materials developed by Bethel Church, Reading, California.

Visiting teachers contribute to the input to students and practical work in the field is led by Andrew Chapman and interns as appropriate

External Relationships

The School relates to a number of Churches who may send candidates for the full time or evening school and support in a variety of ways.

A Co-Location agreement with Maker Life Limited has been set up to provide office space for their personnel and the School.

Advisory Group

This group consists of the Trustees and a number of other individuals who meet to support and give advice to the School. These include Rick Johnston; Paul Harper and changes to this group may be made from time to time. The group meets about four times per year.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable Objectives

The education and training of people to change the world around them.

About the London School of Supernatural Ministry (LSSM)

Started in September 2012. LSSM is a ministry school where students of all ages come to learn how to live in the Kingdom of God and extend its borders through a supernatural lifestyle of love and power.

Main activities during the year

Running short and long term training courses which encourage and help people in churches, on the street, in businesses and in local communities.

Achievements

Started an evening school. Developed Year 2 program. Ran 'Firestarters' short courses. Built relationship with churches and those in government.

Financing

As a charity the School is able to accept donations which may be Gift-Aided. The participants in the Full-Time School pay an annual fee as a lump sum or by monthly instalments. In some instances part payment may be in-kind activity by a student thereby saving costs that would otherwise be incurred by hiring appropriate help. The Evening School participants pay per session or for a year ahead and participants in other courses pay per session or per course.

Financial Review

The results for the year are shown in the Statement of Financial Activities below.

Fixed Assets

Acquisition and disposal of fixed assets during the year are shown in the notes to the accounts.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER

The independent examiner, Ian McCubbin, offers himself for re-election at the forthcoming AGM

SMALL COMPANY EXEMPTIONS
