Achievements and Performance

- Project Development

No new initiatives were developed during 2016-2017 due to lack of suitable and affordable retail premises.

- Project Delivery

Although activities were limited during 2016-2017, Restyle continued to be active through its Storehouse programme collecting and redistributing unwanted second hand goods, including clothing, toiletries and household items to benefit one agency providing support programmes and safe houses for victims of trafficking.

3 Volunteers were engaged in supporting these activities.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not have a reserves policy.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

During this period the charity did not carry out any fundraising or apply for any grants. Operational costs were covered through the small cash donations received from its volunteers.

Goods for distribution were collected when available and immediately transported on to their intended recipient agencies.

No further offers of viable retail space have been available, therefore activities have been minimised and restricted to the collection and redistribution of unwanted surplus goods.

The charity remains active and it is hoped that other opportunities to increase activities may arise in the future.

Section F

Other optional information

Restyle was given free use of a central retail space in Coventry on a temporary lease. The unit was fitted out as a charity shop (with either donated or secondhand equipment) on the ground floor with storage and sorting space on the second floor. The unit was used as:

1. A central donation, sorting and storage point in Coventry for goods to be redistributed to other charities and partners delivering front line services.
2. A pop up charity shop selling donated goods that were not required for redistribution.
3. a base providing volunteering opportunities and retail work experience placements.

The temporary lease was ended in February 2015 as the economic climate had changed and the centre containing the unit was sold. The new owners planned a refurbishment for new shops, cafes and restaurants.

In an attempt to keep a base in Coventry, we took on a lease of a much smaller unit in another area of the city centre from the Council at a reduced rent, but unfortunately after six months the Trustees agreed that the unit did not have sufficient foot fall to provide the income required to cover the costs of rent, utilities etc.

Therefore since the end of May 2015, the charity has not been operating a charity shop but continued to seek to received and redistribute surplus goods (including the remainder of the donated stock from the charity shop), through its Storehouse programme.

The Trustees continue to explore other methods of delivering its aims and objectives whilst operating with a small volunteer team.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
