Report of the Trustees For the year ended 31 December 2017

The Trustees present their report together with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Organisational structure

The Christian Police Association operates under a Constitution adopted on 28 September 2002 and is a registered charity, No. 220482 in England and Wales and No. SCO43784 in Scotland.

Governance and Management

New trustees are appointed by existing trustees. The trustees meet 4 times per year and are supported by an executive director to whom the administration of the practical issues arising from the daily activities is delegated. The board of trustees aims to have a broad range of skills represented, but in particular Christian doctrine, police work, finance and experience in running a branch.

Objectives and activities

The principle objects of the charity are to advance the Christian faith amongst serving members of the police service; and for the relief of poverty, and of sickness, and the promotion of any other charitable purpose in particular for the benefit of serving or retired members of the police service. An additional object was approved by the Charity Commission in 2017. This extended our charitable purpose "To promote, for the benefit of the public: partnership working between the Police and relevant community groups, encouraging and supporting the Police Service and therefore contributing to effective participation in community cohesion, safety and the prevention of crime" These objects are further defined in our Mission statement which is to:

- Encourage and support Christians in the Police Service;
- Communicate in words and action, the truth, message and hope of the gospel of Jesus Christ to colleagues and the community we serve;
- Build bridges between the Christian community and the Police.

Public Benefit

The primary focus is on the encouragement and support of the members both in branches and where there is no branch as yet. The advancement of religion is a recognised public benefit and our work includes focus on moral and ethical values. Focus is also directed outwards, seeking to support the national policing plan through a number of local initiatives and partnering with other organisations, such as local churches and national charities. This seeks to improve quality of life and reduce crime ultimately bringing benefit to the public at large.

The Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit has been referred to in the reviewing and planning of current activities and future developments.

Achievements and Performance

2017 was a period of sustained and exciting growth for our charity. We welcomed two new branches to our charity and continue to work closely with other locations to help set up a CPA branch. We are so blessed that our charity operates across the majority (95%) of police service areas across the United Kingdom. Linked to this growth in branches, we have seen a significant growth (170% since 2015) in new members and friends. The enthusiasm and energy of our nationwide network of volunteer leaders, trustees, CPA members, friends and community partners is amazing. Our volunteers are supported by a small paid team and, together, we work tirelessly to progress the mission and vision of the CPA. Together, we continue to encourage and support our members nationwide.

CPA continues to give support in prayer, word and deed to the whole Police family. We advise in policy making, diversity issues, and are active in wellbeing and pastoral roles. We continue to build good relationships with other staff associations as we all have the sincere desire to support all those officers and staff within modern day policing.

In 2017, Police officers have given their lives in the course of their duty. Officers and staff have continued to step forward to protect communities in the face of terrorist acts and "day to day" policing across all the years that our charity has been in existence. We continue to pray for all those protecting our society. We are told that

"The light shines in the darkness and the darkness have not overcome it" (John 1:5 NIV). Those who give their time, energy and support to policing are part of that light – perhaps the "blue light" - and it is a privilege to serve them through our charity.

Future developments

We set up the new strand of "community partner" to the CPA in late 2016, and we have been so encouraged with the tremendous support we have received from those partners over the last year. We will continue to progress this strand of partnership with the charity in 2018.

In 2017, it was excellent to continue to build upon our relationship with our emergency services colleagues in Firefighters for Christ and also with the newly formed Christian Ambulance Network. We look forward to working together with these partners over the next year.

We are working closely with those Service areas where the charity does not have an active branch. We hope to see two more branches come on line within the network during 2018.

Across the UK, 2017 saw our local leaders and members engage in many events in furtherance of our Mission and Vision. We also made the decision to actively engage in large Christian festivals and events throughout the UK to promote the Mission of the CPA. This will continue in 2018.

Financial review

The net income for the year amounted to  $\pounds11,880$  (5/4/2016-31/12/16: net expenditure  $\pounds62,590$ ). Unrestricted funds total  $\pounds159,122$  (5/4/2016-31/12/16:  $\pounds147,242$ ).

The finance required to fund the activities is raised through the regular giving of many members and one off donations, supplemented by the refund of income tax from HM Revenue & Customs through the Gift Aid scheme. During 2017 the charity benefited from grants of £6,575 and legacies of £30,975.

Restricted funds and Permanent Endowment funds are disclosed in note 12.

Reserves policy

The policy agreed by the trustees is to aim to hold in unrestricted reserves not committed or invested in tangible fixed assets (the 'free' reserves) sufficient cash reserves to cover salary costs for six months. This requires reserves of £34,000. Free reserves amount to £158,337, a level considered appropriate in the current economic circumstances.

Risk policy and review

The trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks that the charity faces and continue to review them to ensure that they are adequately mitigated through insurance, strategic planning, policies and procedures.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Christian Police Association

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2017, which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Charities Act 2011. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirements of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 do not apply. The charity is preparing accrued accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 44(1) (c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and section 145 of the Charities Act 2011
- to follow procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) of the Charities Act 2011
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (the 2006 Accounts Regulations) and the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair ' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and section 130 of the Charities Act 2011
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and the accounting requirements of the Charities Act 2011 have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
