Review of Activities

Well, almost 10 years reporting our successes and challenges. I never get weary of expressing my admiration and gratitude to the staff, volunteers, residents and Trustees, so I will do it again this year.... Well done, all of you.

Watching the recovery journeys of broken men transforming into good sons, dads, brothers and, in some cases husbands, is fantastic. Not only this, but they go on to become constructive members of their community and good citizens in wider society.

Obviously our primary concern is for the welfare of those we seek to help, but we are not blind to the damage addiction causes and the costs involved. Cost is of course, not only measured in money but in hurt as well. That being said, we are aware of the costs to the public purse associated with addiction, particularly where crime is committed to buy drugs and prison is demanded. With this in mind, at these times of austerity, I am proud to be helping our guys and also relieving the stresses on public services and saving money.

Of course, we don't just treat drugs and alcohol addiction at Claver Hall, many also have mental health problems and are suffering from a wide range of social and domestic issues. It's a tough job but the rewards of recovery are fantastic and far stretching.

We are so blessed to have such dedicated staff and volunteers. Janice, our Project Manager continues to do a fantastic job and so do the others. We have had a few staff changes this year, Ian Willoughby left us after trying to juggle two jobs and then getting a promotion making it all impossible, Yvonne has also ceased working at Claver Hall, but is still working for us on funding bids, preparing the annual report and other things that she has expertise in so she is still on hand with her advice in

I hope you enjoy reading our annual report, in particular the guys' relating their journeys. They say it better than I could so I'll leave it to them. As you read on you'll see that it's not all hard work; I'm told that the trip to Blackpool was great, particularly the fantastic Italian restaurant and the Pleasure Beach and regular eating out is causing guys to gain a few pounds.

The picture is not all sweetness and light I'm afraid, cuts to funding continue to go deeper. We are only small in comparison to some services but we create huge value for money since we provide 24 hour care and allow our residents to grow at their own pace. We don't have a set time limit for being there as we know this is counterproductive tipping people out before they are ready. We have the best record for successful completions and guys going into work than any other service and we are so proud of this. Long may it continue. So the initial cost may be higher but the saving on the public purse is huge in the end.

We thank all those who provide funds and many individual acts of generosity and kindness. Without this support the Project would be much the poorer, not only financially but in providing and fulfilling its role within the wider community.

Financial Review and Reserves Policy

The net surplus for the year was £5,460 all of which was in respect of unrestricted funds

The charity's total reserves at 31 October 2017 were £22,264 compared to £16,804 at 31 October 2017, all of which were unrestricted funds and the trustees consider that this is an adequate level of reserves to support both the ongoing work of the charity and its future development

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Financial Statements in accordance with applicable law and UK Accounting Standards. Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- 1) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- 2) Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP
- 3) Make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- 4) State whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- 5) Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015), and in accordance with the micro-entity provisions within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF ST ANTHONY'S PROJECT FOR HOMELESS ADDICTS

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 October 2017 which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

This report is made solely to the Charity's Trustees as a body, in accordance with Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act). My independent examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the Charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them In an Independent Examiner's Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Charity and the Charity's Trustees as a body, for my independent examination work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of the Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees (who are also directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to an audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act, follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act and state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
