Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity’s trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	TRUST DEED
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	TRUST
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	APPOINTMENT BY TRUSTEES BASED ON RECOMMENDATIONS BY CHAIRMAN

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity’s organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees’ consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Policies and procedures for the induction and training of trustees continue. Trustees continue to attend seminars on good governance. The trustees find the vital information on the Charity Commission's website and the regular email blasts from the commission very useful added sources of training. The charity's organisational structure continues to progress. There are still four (4) trustees, including the Founder and Apostle General who is the chair. The appointment of Trustees is done by the recommendation of the chairperson in consultation with, and by the consensus of the Trustees. The trustees make decisions, and a Management Team continues to oversee the day-to-day administration of the trust church headed by the Senior Pastor who is also a trustee.

The chairperson chairs all meetings. The Charity has different functional areas, headed by a trustee or an appointed official of the Church per the required expertise. The Charity is associated with other reputable and renowned organisations national and international. From time to time, senior officials of the Trust represent the Trust Church at meetings and conferences. The Trust has given financial and spiritual support to such organisations in the pursuit of our objectives and realisation of our vision. The trustees regularly assess the major risks to which the Charity is exposed, in particular operational, financial, and regulatory provisions.

The Management Team, which was setup by the Trustees, for example, meets regularly to asses and manage administrative, financial and regulatory provisions related to risks. The Trustees are satisfied that there are reasonable systems in place, to mitigate the significant risks.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- A) To advance the Christian faith and to fulfil such other purposes exclusively charitable and connected with the charitable work of the trust.
- (B) To relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are aged or sick and to relieve the distress caused thereby.
- (C) To advance education in accordance with Christian principles by establishing and operating educational establishments.
- (D) To provide, in the interest of social welfare, recreational and leisure time occupation for persons who have need due to their youth, poverty, or social and economic circumstances and with the objective of improving their conditions.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

There have been no significant and reportable changes to the main activities of the charity since the last financial year-end that differentiates form those in its registration documents

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Our main activities at Ahenfie Chapel are ministering the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, counselling (including pre-marital & marital), charitable work, and dealing with a variety of social problems. We had a successful Metal Health Week. The Charity was involved in various charitable endeavours in accordance with the objects of the trust.

The trustees are pleased to report that the charity continued to be successful spiritually by ministering to many people.

1. We as usual supported programmes to assist women through the Royal Ladies International Ministry based in Ghana, UK and USA. This year's Camp held in Milton Keynes and in Ghana were highly successful.
2. We continue to contribute to support the Aged through a Senior Citizen's Ministry in Ghana.
3. We continue to contribute to host successful conferences and other events, which are major conventions, aimed at promoting the gospel of Jesus Christ.
4. We continue to contribute to support single parents, bereaved persons, and a range of persons facing various social challenges.
5. Continued to assist in the planting and strengthening of churches in Africa, Europe, and USA to continue with the pioneering missionary work.
6. We continue to contribute to make generous gifts to charities and organisations, especially in Ghana and UK under provisions of our Trust Deed.
7. We continue to contribute to adopted villages in Ghana like Wassa, Akropong and Berekum in the Brong Ahafo Region with clothes, food, scholarships, and the more.
8. We continue to contribute to our mission outreaches to townships in Ghana, Africa like Gambaga Witch Camp in the Northern Region of Ghana and the Nsawam and Koforidua Prisons with medical supplies and doctors who gave temporary free medical care, and also food, clothing and the like, while preaching messages of hope and faith to them in the evenings.
9. We are still reorganising our men's ministry known as the Men Makers Ministry. We had a great Men's Ministry Week, and had performances from our Men's Choir, Men's Prayer Team. We are still organising our Men's Community Projects Team, and the Men's Ministry Football Team, aimed at organising community sports activities and more!
10. Continued to build a dynamic Young Adults & Youth Ministry known as the World Movers Generation with a more organised system of ministry, monthly meetings, weekly prayer meetings on a prayer conference phone line, and regular performances during our church services by the youth and young adults.

The young people are again looking forward to their annual Camp Meeting and Retreat where they all go to a location outside of London to inspire each other with seminar teachings and training sessions relevant to their career paths and spiritual development, as well as some social activity. This year's Camp was highly successful.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity continues to seek to maintain a financial backup plan equivalent to two or more months' working expenses. This is subject to review, though aimed at an increase to a reserve of about six (6) months' operating expenses in the near future. The charity continues to research into other forms of investments allowable under our Trust Deed provisions to help the charity to fully achieve its objects in the near future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Charitable contributions from congregation of the Trust Church in the form of tithes, offerings, thanksgiving offerings, pledges and the like.
